Two Sought After $1,500 Holdup Here

East Liverpool police checked out a host of clues pointing to the Youngstown-Mahoning County area today as they sought two gunmen who held up the Loblaw, Inc., Supermarket on outer Dresden Ave. Thursday night and fled with loot estimated unofficially at $1,500.

The Halloween robbers entered the store at 8:08, held the employes at gunpoint, and rifled cash register drawers and the office.

Then they fled in a 1966 model Pontiac four-door sedan which was found abandoned 17 minutes later by the Ohio Highway Patrol on Route 7 in the Brookside area. The auto was towed to the police garage, where it is awaiting examination today for fingerprints and other physical evidence by technicians from the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Identification at London.

THE AUTO carries Pennsylvania license plates. Authorities said a check showed it is owned by a New Castle, Pa., man and was reported stolen earlier Thursday at Youngstown.

Patrolman David Mumaw received the telephoned report of the holdup. Patrolman Dwight Garvey wrote the report of the initial investigation.

Garvey said Mrs. Ethel Seevers, a clerk, was at a cash register just inside the store's entrance when a Negro man walked in and said: "Give me some money." Then he pulled out a revolver.

Then a second Negro entered the store carrying a shotgun, which he pointed down the aisle at two male employes who were at the opposite end of the store. He forced them to lie on the floor.

The men emptied the drawers of two cash registered and one then entered a small enclosed office space and removed "a large sum of cash" from a drawer, leaving behind a quantity of checks.

As the men drove away, a witness obtained the first three digits of the Pennsylvania license number on the auto.

THE ALARM was spread throughout the area. The East Liverpool department dispatched all available cruisers to the scene as a wide search began. Cruisers of the highway patrol and sheriff's department joined the search in a matter of moments.

Police issued these descriptions of the two suspects.

"No. 1" is about 25 and about 5 feet, 10 inches tall, of heavy build. He was wearing a hat and dark clothing.

"No. 2" also is about 25. Of slim build, he is about 6 feet tall. He was wearing a pink and white scarf around his neck

War Action

SAIGON (AP) — American air, naval and artillery bombardment of all of North Vietnam ended tonight on President Johnson's orders, the U.S. Command announced, but it said there would be no letup in operations in South Vietnam.

The Viet Cong also showed no sign of de-escalation in the South. In the 12 hours before President Johnson's broadcast announcing the bombing halt, an enemy mine blew holes in a U.S. Navy LST and killed 16 American sailors and a South Vietnamese, rocket attacks killed 33 Vietnamese civilians in Saigon and Hue, and 69 North Vietnamese and 12 Americans were killed in fighting north of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

American warplanes continued raids on North Vietnam's southern panhandle today but were ordered to quit the skies north of the demilitarized zone before 9 p.m., or 8 a.m. EST, the hour Johnson set for all attacks on North Vietnam to be halted.

The U.S. Command said operational reports on the final raids would not be available until Saturday.

Bombing Halt

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three years and nine months after he started the bombing of North Vietnam, President Johnson has ordered an end to all attacks against that country in the hope this will "lead to progress" in ending the war in Southeast Asia.

Announcing his decision Thursday night, Johnson said he acted with the full support of his military chiefs and diplomatic officials, with the agreement of South Vietnam, and upon "confirmation" from North Vietnam of "the essential understanding" of U.S. terms for his action.

The Johnson order injected a dramatic new element into the presidential election contest less than a week before the voters go to the polls.

Political observers said it could give a lift to Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey's campaign, although it might have come too late to make much difference in voter opinion.

Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon, third party candidate George C. Wallace, and Humphrey all said after Johnson's television-radio broadcast they hoped the step would mean progress in the Paris peace talks.

Johnson had notified all of them of his decision about 6

To Aid People, Not Much To Do With Candidates, He Says

DETROIT (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said President Johnson's decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam helps "the cause of peace. This is going to help people. I don't think it has much to do with candidates as such."

Humphrey had been asked Thursday night if the decision would help his Democratic presidential candidacy.

Later, arriving in Battle Creek, Mich., for a rally, Humphrey said, "Tonight I feel more deeply serious about the nature of this campaign than ever before, because of developments that have taken place that your President announced."

Humphrey told newsmen he had decided himself not to take his place at the National Security Council meeting that preceded Johnson's announcement.

"I am a candidate," he said. "I didn't feel that it was appropriate for me when other candidates cannot be there . . . I want no political implications whatsoever."

Thus, Humphrey was informed of the decision in a conference telephone call from Johnson to an Elizabeth, N.J., hotel. Republican Richard M. Nixon and third-party candidate George C. Wallace listened from their stops along the campaign trail.

Humphrey indicated the bombing pause would not affect his campaign style in the few days remaining before the election.

In School Dispute

Hancock Talks Are Broken Off

Negotiations between representatives of Hancock County school service personnel and the school administration broke down Thursday after a 4½-hour meeting failed to bring agreement on a salary schedule requested by the employes.

Non - teaching personnel employed by the system are seeking an across - the - board increase of 50 cents an hour.

The administration made a compromise offer of 13 cents more on the hour above the 11-cent increase granted earlier in October when the new salary scale went into effect.

THE NEW scale raised the custodians pay from $2.40 to $2.51 an hour and yesterday's offer would have boosted the figure to $2.64.

When the administration failed to make additional concessions in the way of wage adjustments for bus drivers, cooks and secretaries, the negotiations were broken off, with no date set for a future meeting.

The administration had pointed out earlier that a 50-cent-an-hour increase would cost an additional $144,000 if granted to each employe and could spiral to $200,000 yearly if overtime pay were granted.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, school superintendent, and Floyd Tarr, legal adviser for the Board of Education, have claimed the new scale now in effect provides wages higher than in the surrounding school districts and governmental service agencies and is comparable to that of most local industries.

Frank Pietranton, attorney for the non - professional workers, took exception to the statement. He argued that the surrounding areas could not be compared with Hancock County so far as the cost of living is concerned, since Hancock has a higher cost of living index. He also declared that comparison with industries is a "phantom statement" in that industry provides paid hospitalization and insurance.

ONE OF the custodians noted that he will lose approximately $19 a month because his hours were cut back from 44 to 40 a week.

The administration also said any sizable increases are not possible because of budget restrictions. At this point, Pietranton retorted that the school board could apply to the state board of education for a budget shift.

It also was pointed out by the administration that the district

Nixon Hopes Bombing Halt Spurs Talks

Likens Action To Earlier, Temporary Pauses In Attacks

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is trying to play down the significance of the North Vietnam bombing halt by likening it to earlier, and temporary, bombing pauses.

Addressing a nationally televised rally in Madison Square Garden Thursday night, the Republican presidential candidate said "I trust that this action may bring some progress" in the Paris peace talks.

But this followed a Nixon statement that, "As you are probably aware tonight, the President announced another bombing halt over Vietnam."

Speaking at the $200,000 rally two hours after Johnson announced the move on nationwide television, the Republican nominee said: "As a presidential candidate—and my vice presidential running mate joins me in this—neither he nor I will say anything that might destroy the chance to have peace. We want peace."

Then Nixon added, "My friends, while that subject is off limits because the interests of peace require it, let us make sure that we do not overlook the necessity for a new foreign policy to see to it that America is not involved in another Vietnam."

To Cut Infiltration

Bombing Failed Main Objective

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States spent about half a million tons of bombs, nearly $2 billion worth of planes and hundreds of pilots were killed. But it failed in the main objective of its air war against North Vietnam.

That objective was to cut the level of infiltration of men and arms from the North into South Vietnam.

The flow of North Vietnamese soldiers doubled and redoubled during the more than 3½ years of the bombing campaign—even before President Johnson spared most of North Vietnam from U.S. air attack starting last March 31.

And, despite the interdiction campaign, the Viet Cong were re-equipped with new and increasingly sophisticated Red Chinese and Soviet-supplies weapons, many of them heavy rockets and artillery-type weapons.

Senior military officers believe that the air assault could have been successful; that it might have shortened the entire Vietnam war, including the ground fighting in the South.

But, they claim, former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, backed by Johnson, prevented the military from striking North Vietnam as heavily and rapidly as possible.

They contended that the closely controlled, gradually increased buildup of bombing pressure did little more than give the other side time to adjust.

The U.S. generals and admirals found their views echoed by a powerful Senate committee which declared "we shackled the true potential of air power."

Civilian leaders reply that the course of action favored by the military chiefs involved grave risks of bringing a clash with the Soviet Union and Red China, particularly if the military had

Saxbe-Gilligan Debate Climaxes Hot Campaign

By The Associated Press

Ohio's two U.S. Senate candidates finally met face-to-face today to climax their heated campaign.

Republican William B. Saxbe and Democrat John J. Gilligan were scheduled for a noon debate before the Cleveland City Club. The City Club debates have become traditional pre-election sessions.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey, wife of the Democrat presidential candidate, was in Cleveland today to attend a Democratic tea and then planned to go on to Toledo for a party-affiliated reception.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, Humphrey's running mate, was in Parma for a brief campaign stop Thursday, and scolded young pickets holding signs supporting Richard Nixon and George Wallace.

Pointing his finger at a youth with a Wallace sign, Muskie said: "Come over here with the Nixon people, young man, you're both the same kind of people."

At a stop earlier Thursday in Cincinnati, Muskie attacked Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, for what he called the economic deprivation of the "Nixon years" when he was vice president.

U.S. Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois toured Ohio Thursday in behalf of state, local and national Republican candidates and predicted that Nixon would win the White House by a plurality of five million votes, or 330 electoral votes.

Speaking in Cleveland, Percy said he did not think the North Vietnam bombing halt would affect the outcome of the election. He said the only thing that would help the Democratic ticket would be "the unilateral surrender of the enemy."

Percy earlier had made stops in Athens, Steubenville, Lima and Elyria.

Humphrey is scheduled to make a final Ohio appearance Saturday with a brief stop in Youngstown.

Spiro T. Agnew, Republican vice presidential candidate, is scheduled for a campaign stop in Canton Sunday afternoon.

Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes got into the national campaign briefly Thursday night by appearing with Nixon on the platform at a mammoth, nationally televised rally in New York's Madison Square Garden.

In the Senate campaign, Gilligan said Thursday that Saxbe "falsely claims credit for working to upgrade education in Ohio."

Speaking before a rally at Youngstown State University, Gilligan said Saxbe while in the legislature voted against a bill to extend the minimum wage to teachers and fought to defeat an emergency school construction bill.

Saxbe said in Cleveland Thursday that government and industry should work together to reduce welfare rolls. "The present welfare system has robbed the poor of dignity and the only thing that can replace it is a job," he said.

He said private enterprise, knowing the value of these prospective customers, is willing to lend a helping hand in training them for productive jobs.

The annual solicitation is sponsored by the Council of Church Women United.

TOM SWEENEY SAYS

In 1954, I watched a railroad engine powered, not by coal, but my fuel oil from Venezuela, actually pulling coal from a West Virginia mine. I warned them that if our free trade Congressmen were re-elected, tens of thousands of coal miners would soon have to leave West Virginia, jobless. It happened just that way.

Today the steel industry is in the same danger as coal was then. In 1957, we sold abroad 5.3 million tons of steel and imported only 1.2 million. Last year, we exported a mere 1.7 million, and imported 11.5 million. Incredible? Yet this year, dumping of foreign steel here has increased 50% above the same period last year.

Unless we vote against leaders who will never admit they are wrong on this free trade issue, thousands of steel workers may lose their jobs to cheap labor abroad. If elected, I will fight for quotas that will protect the jobs of coal and steel workers.

CREME HAIR-RINSES

Q. What are the benefits of using creme rinses on the hair?

A. Shampooing removes much of the hair's oily film, giving the hair a dry, dull appearance. Static charges that make the hair "fly", also tend to develop after shampooing. Creme rinses are designed to help overcome both problems. They usually contain anti-static substances and other ingredients which make the hair feel soft and improve the gloss. These rinses are especially helpful for hair damaged by excessive bleaching, waving and repeated dyeing.

HEART SIZE

Q. What causes heart enlargement?

A. The heart enlarges when it is required to do extra work because of some circulatory abnormality (high blood pressure, valvular disease, or heart muscle damage from a heart attack). An enlarged heart does not necessarily mean a failing heart. The cause of the enlargement should, of course, be determined.

Answers appearing in these columns are of necessity brief and general and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all physicians. Remember—the diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician.

The County Offices

The 1968 election campaign is now down to its final stage, from the presidential race to county contests and special local issues.

Voters have had ample time to listen and to evaluate, but the torrent of claims, charges and counter charges sometimes obscure the qualifications of the candidates and blur the image of the office sought.

Columbiana County has seven races for Courthouse positions — for two Commissioner seats, for Sheriff, for Recorder, for Treasurer and for Clerk of Courts. County Auditor Kenneth Bell's post is not at stake this year. Prosecutor Warren Bettis, Republican, and County Coroner Dr. William Kolozsi, Democrat, are without opposition.

In reviewing the men who are in office and the men and women who are hoping to replace them, we are impressed this year by the overwhelming value of experience and accomplishment as contrasted to unproven talent and the lack of evidence to justify strong beliefs that incumbents should be ousted — whatever the party.

Not always have the men in office made decisions which were popular or at times satisfactory in terms of logic or economy. But for the most part they have performed well, and in no case have overstepped the boundaries of efficiency and propriety as to warrant voter rejection.

Commissioners

County Comissioners Charles Gause (R) and Max Gard (D) are seeking re-election in contests which include Lew Sowards (D) of Lisbon RD and Galen Greenisen (R) of near Salem.

Mr. Gause, completing the term of the late Frank Wilson, has brought to the office his experience as a businessman, township official and a civic leader and has gained demonstrated understanding of operations of county government, county finances and planning.

Mr. Gard is a veteran commissioner with an awareness of historical perspective, of the practicality of the present and preparation for the future.

Both men have shown a capacity for fulfilling their duties, often overlooking party lines, which warrants a return to the Courthouse for four more years.

Sheriff

Incumbent Sheriff Russell VanFossan (R) has served 18 years as a deputy and Sheriff, and has won respect as a competent law man and jail manager. He is opposed by Forrest Young, marshal at Summitville and Franklin Township constable.

Engineer

Bert A. Dawson Jr. (R) of East Liverpool an engineer for a refractories firm, is seeking to unseat County Engineer John Ursu (D) of Salem, now completing his first term.

Mr. Ursu has activated a number of needed projects across the county and his office has shown an energy which contrasted considerably with his predecessor.

Treasurer

Veteran Courthouse incumbent Vincent C. Judge (D) is seeking his seventh term, challenged by Mrs. Virginia Shipley of Salem (R), a hospital technician.

Clerk Of Courts

With ten years of service, incumbent Carl Stacey (D) has maintained a legal and title department which has earned no little regard from lawyers and laymen. He is opposed by Robert Dutcher (R) of Salem, a machine shop foreman for E. W. Bliss Co.

Recorder

Modernization of procedures and systems in this office was undertaken by John Wargo, the present Democrat recorder, who is asking for a second term. Velma Cope of Lisbon (R), a newspaper reporter, is waging an energetic fight to succeed him.

We recommend the re-election of Commissioners Gause, Republican, and Gard, Democrat; Sheriff VanFossan, Republican; County Engineer Ursu, Democrat; Treasurer Judge, Democrat; Clerk of Courts Stacey, Democrat, and Recorder Wargo, Democrat.

School Levies Needed

Renewals of levies for the Columbiana County Retarded Children's School and for Beaver Local, East Palestine and Fairfield - Waterford school districts will be considered by voters in Tuesday's general election.

The proposed renewal of the two-tenths of a mill countywide levy for the school for the retarded would provide funds for operation of the school for the mentally handicapped.

Beaver Local is seeking renewals of a 2.3-mill and a 1.6-mill levy. East Palestine asks approval of two 2.6-mill levies up for renewal, and Fairfield - Waterford has a 4-mill levy and a 3-mill levy up again — all for current expenses.

The need for the monies for continued operation of the schools is without challenge; the obligation of citizens to support public education of our children is obvious.

We endorse all the school levies, and urge voters to approve them solidly.

Business Vital To Education

W. B. Boyer, president of Republic Steel Corp., said something the other day about colleges that needed to be said.

He was talking about Ohio private colleges, but he could have included Ohio state colleges, as well as colleges and universities all across the country.

He was speaking to an Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges audience, so he kept his remarks pretty much on target.

WHAT HE SAID, in effect, was that while the business community has been liberal in its support of the Ohio private college, little has been done to provide the student with an appreciation of the role of business in the American economy.

His complaint was directed principally at the college curricula, which, Mr. Boyer points out, does not teach enough courses in economics, the principles of business practice, a balanced view of the need for profits and the creative potential of profits.

As a matter of fact, it is our impression that all too many students come out of college with a diploma but with very few of the tools necessary to move into a responsible job in business or industry. Even worse, many graduate with a warped view of private enterprise.

Mr. Boyer did not say so but the implication was clear that unless the private college places more emphasis on a partnership relationship with business, a very vital link in the state's higher educational system could be seriously threatened with financial stagnation.

WE COULD GO a step further and include the state-supported universities, and specifically the minority of red-necks among the students who seem to believe that raising hell and causing disruptions on cumpus are more important than getting an education.

The state university depends heavily on tax revenue for its existence, and the taxpayer is fed up to the jowls with protests, riots and outright rebellion.

Unless there is a greater appreciation of the privileges inherent in state education, we predict the taxpayers will ultimately make their impatience and disgust felt at the treasury level unless the conscientious student majority put a hammer-lock on the irreconcilable minority.

Letters To The Editor

Course Criticized

I would like to state a few principles I believe are at stake in the sex education controversy?

I attended a meeting of the board of education and Saturday and Sunday meetings on the subject. In none of these have I heard anyone suggest that sex was or is "dirty".

I have no trust in the blind acceptance of recommendations of some national or federal group. I expect that the local officials, be they law enforcement, medical, judicial, welfare, social or education, will consider any action or project against the conditions here before they decide. Mr. Sam Brown, board president, says the books used in schools here are not previewed before use.

At none of the above meetings has anyone in my hearing proposed elimination of the sex course. No one in my hearing has suggested that there is not a need for a course in sex. Both my wife and I read this book before deciding as to the merits or lack of merit of some of the discussion.

Children are sensitive to truth or baloney. No matter how well the teacher may be prepared, a female teacher will not convince a boy she knows about his emotions and urges. Nor will a male teacher tell a girl certain physical changes are not necessarily a reason for alarm. I have led Boy Scout troops in several parts of the country, and have some idea how youngsters talk — and they do not talk as the teachers and educators think they do ! ! ! !

If a child has watched even a little TV, he or she already feels that sex is "dirty."

We have no quarrel with any faculty member. Personalities are not an issue; I could care less about the woman teacher.

The board said that last summer, they asked for opinions on the subject. So far, I have met several persons who attended those meetings but none who read the book then.

You wouldn't buy a car or appliance this way, why a course in sex for your and my child?

If you are 40 or hereabouts, we remember the National Education Association brought forth recognition reading instead phonetic sounds, and you remember the hell this country's parents went through trying to teach "Johnny" to read.

Most revealing was the attitude of some board members. I have felt more welcome questioning the motives of the vice president where I work than they showed.

Movies Defended

I have recently read several letters to the editor in which the theaters have been criticized. As manager of a theater in this area I feel that this criticism is unfair.

On two separate occasions this week remarks have been made about "Adult Films". Apparently these people do not know what is meant by this term. An adult film does not necessarily contain anything of a questionable nature, but may be simply a movie which children would not understand. For example "A Man For All Season" was actually a religious picture, but it was listed as an adult film because children would not have enjoyed it.

The movie "A Man and A Woman" was a beautiful love story, but it was in French and the translation was in sub-titles, so it was not recommended for children. This term is intended to alert the parents to check before allowing their children to attend them.

I personally feel that it is the responsibility of the child's parents to decide what they want them to see. The most that we can do is let you know our opinion. At any time we feel that there is any doubt about the contents of a picture, both our newspaper ads and our billboards carry this information.

You must also remember that you, as the customer decide what kind of movies are made and shown. Like any other business, it is necessary for us to supply what you will buy, if we want to stay in business. When we show a movie like "Valley of The Dolls" or "Bonnie and Clyde" we can have a full theater, yet last week when we had a children's movie, namely Walt Disney's "The Tinder Box," we didn't have enough attendance to pay the expenses for the day.

If you really want good movies, all you have to do is show it by attending the good movies.

As members of the Motion Picture Association of America and of the National Association of Theatre Owners, our theatres — namely the America, State and Super 30 Drive-In — have agreed to include a rating of the move in every theatre ad.

There will be four ratings used as follows:

G—Suggested for general audience (suitable for all ages.)

M—Suggested for mature audience (parental discretion advised.)

R—Restricted — persons under 18 not admitted unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian.

(X)—Persons under 18 will not be admitted. This rating will be enforced at the box-office, if necessary.

Because the public is ultimately responsible for the success or failure of this system here are some tips:

a. Learn to identify the symbols and what they mean.

b. Help your children to understand the symbols and why they are important.

c. Urge the young members of your family to respect the ratings. Make it unnecessary for a theatre manager to turn them away at the box-office.

d. Support in your theatres the types of films you say you want, and you will thereby encourage the production of more of them.

We are writing in regard to the recent death of Peter Franczek.

We wish to thank the volunteer firemen of Chester and Lawrenceville, all the Civil Defense units, and everyone else who took part in the recovery of his body from the Ohio River.

It was a long, grueling week for all of them. Good weather and bad, they were there from dawn to dusk and often later at night. We cannot express our deep gratitude to everyone concerned.

Conspiracy

Why would 50,000 people participate in a march in London denouncing the Vietnam War? The British have long since pulled out of Asia militarily and they haven't given the slightest indication of an intention to become involved in Vietnam.

What, then, is the reason? The answer is that the demonstration was unquestionably planned by representatives of the Communist party who have trained leaders in England ready to espouse any cause that the Moscow government may desire to have publicized.

Most of the participants in the marches are themselves unaware of the Communist connection but are persuaded by one means or another that they ought to demonstrate against the United States. The instigators, however, are for the most part financed by the Soviet government.

There are trained agitators in various countries throughout the world, especially in the United States and Latin America.

In the annual report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities issued this month, Chairman Edwin E. Willis describes the Communist origin and manipulation of demonstrations in this country against the Vietnam War.

He says that an assortment of Comunists of both the Peking and Moscow varieties, fellow travelers, Marxists, radicals, pacifists and professional "peace" agitators have launched demonstrations. The purpose, of course, is to sabotage American efforts to support the South Vietnamese resistance to a Communist takeover of their country.

Mr. Willis points out that while honest, sincere and responsible dissent is legitimate, "the fact must be faced that there are persons who use the claim and mask of dissent for no other reason than to try to conceal the fact that their allegiance is to a power other than that of the United States." He summarizes the situation as follows:

"Deliberate deception, methodically employed to advance the world Communist movement is not dissent, but conspiracy."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover testified before the committee, moreover, that "Students for a Democratic Society"—which claims to be the largest of the "NEW Left" student organizations, with more than 140 chapters—is one of the most militant of the student-youth groups engaged in activities protesting U.S. foreign policies.

Communists, he said, are "actively promoting and participating in" the programs of the Students for a Democratic Society. There are indications that some of the groups are even working at a high-school level.

The techniques of the Communists in stimulating student demonstrations throughout the world are well known to officials in the American government and to members of Congress. The Department of Justice is aware of the record of some of the leaders active in this country.

Many of them openly acknowledge that they are Communists. Others conceal any connection with the party but meet often with Communist leaders.

Anybody can organize a political party in America and preach a cause that is unpopular and even contrary to the policies of the United States. But if the leaders of any such group participate in conferences with representatives of foreign governments or receive compensation or other rewards for themselves or for the expense of "demonstrations," this could be defined as a conspirary against the United States.

The late Judge Michael A. Musmanno, for 16 years a member of the supreme court of the state of Pennsylvania, testified before the house committee that, under some court decisions, the communists have been able to turn the fifth amendment into a "fifth column marching against the security of the nation."

Certainly there is need for legislation, as recommended by the committee, to strengthen the laws against conspiracy and particularly to prohibit any relationship between demonstrators in this country and a foreign power. There have been virtually no prosecutions against comunists who are citizens of the United Staetes but who take orders from a foreign government. Yet their activities are designed to impair or break down the foreign policy of the United States.

The County Offices

The 1968 election campaign is now down to its final stage, from the presidential race to county contests and special local issues.

Voters have had ample time to listen and to evaluate, but the torrent of claims, charges and counter charges sometimes obscure the qualifications of the candidates and blur the image of the office sought.

Columbiana County has seven races for Courthouse positions — for two Commissioner seats, for Sheriff, for Recorder, for Treasurer and for Clerk of Courts. County Auditor Kenneth Bell's post is not at stake this year. Prosecutor Warren Bettis, Republican, and County Coroner Dr. William Kolozsi, Democrat, are without opposition.

In reviewing the men who are in office and the men and women who are hoping to replace them, we are impressed this year by the overwhelming value of experience and accomplishment as contrasted to unproven talent and the lack of evidence to justify strong beliefs that incumbents should be ousted — whatever the party.

Not always have the men in office made decisions which were popular or at times satisfactory in terms of logic or economy. But for the most part they have performed well, and in no case have overstepped the boundaries of efficiency and propriety as to warrant voter rejection.

Commissioners

County Comissioners Charles Gause (R) and Max Gard (D) are seeking re-election in contests which include Lew Sowards (D) of Lisbon RD and Galen Greenisen (R) of near Salem.

Mr. Gause, completing the term of the late Frank Wilson, has brought to the office his experience as a businessman, township official and a civic leader and has gained demonstrated understanding of operations of county government, county finances and planning.

Mr. Gard is a veteran commissioner with an awareness of historical perspective, of the practicality of the present and preparation for the future.

Both men have shown a capacity for fulfilling their duties, often overlooking party lines, which warrants a return to the Courthouse for four more years.

Sheriff

Incumbent Sheriff Russell VanFossan (R) has served 18 years as a deputy and Sheriff, and has won respect as a competent law man and jail manager. He is opposed by Forrest Young, marshal at Summitville and Franklin Township constable.

Engineer

Bert A. Dawson Jr. (R) of East Liverpool an engineer for a refractories firm, is seeking to unseat County Engineer John Ursu (D) of Salem, now completing his first term.

Mr. Ursu has activated a number of needed projects across the county and his office has shown an energy which contrasted considerably with his predecessor.

Recorder

Modernization of procedures and systems in this office was undertaken by John Wargo, the present Democrat recorder, who is asking for a second term. Velma Cope of Lisbon (R), a newspaper reporter, is waging an energetic fight to succeed him.

We recommend the re-election of Commissioners Gause, Republican, and Gard, Democrat; Sheriff VanFossan, Republican; County Engineer Ursu, Democrat; Treasurer Judge, Democrat; Clerk of Courts Stacey, Democrat, and Recorder Wargo, Democrat.

But if the leaders of any such group participate in conferences with representatives of foreign governments or receive compensation or other rewards for themselves or for the expense of "demonstrations," this could be defined as a conspirary against the United States.

The late Judge Michael A. Musmanno, for 18 years a member of the supreme court of the state of Pennsylvania, testified before the house committee that, under some court decisions, the communists have been able to turn the fifth amendment into a "fifth column marching against the security of the nation."

Certainly there is need for legislation, as recommended by the committee, to strengthen the laws against conspiracy and particularly to prohibit any relationship between demonstrators in this country and a foreign power. There have been virtually no prosecutions against comunists who are citizens of the United Staetes but who take orders from a foreign government. Yet their activities are designed to impair or break down the foreign policy of the United States.

McKenna, Johnson Battle For Court Post

A Jefferson County judge and a Canfield attorney will fight it out at the polls in the general election Tuesday for one of two vacancies on the bench of the recently - realigned 7th District Court of Appeals.

The candidate are James R. McKenna of Mingo Junction, judge of a Jefferson County Court in Toronto, and Atty. Nils P. Johnson of Canfield, who formerly served in the court, losing in the last election.

McKenna won a three-way battle for the Democratci nomination in the May primaries, defeating two Youngstown men. Johnson was unopposed in the Republican primary. Their names will appear Tuesday without party labels on the nonpartisan judicial ballot.

The holdover judges are John J. Lynch Jr. and Joseph E. O'Neill, both of Youngstown and both Democrats.

The vacancy occurred when the former 7th District Court area was split into two districts. The area now known as the 7th Distrct Court of Appeals is comprised of Columbiana, Jefferson, Harrison, Mahoning, Monroe, Noble, Carroll and Belmont counties.

Five other counties were set aside to form the new 11th District Court of Appeals territory. They are Lake, Ashtabula, Geauga, Trumbull and Portage.

Incumbent Judge George M. Jones, a Republican, resides in Trumbull County. He moved to the bench of the 11th District Court following the realignment.

be Sunday before it arrives at East Liverpool, Wise said.

He added that the Midland water plant, six miles upriver, has been alerted to notify the East Liverpool department when the sludge is spotted at Midland. That arrangement will allow the East Liverpool plant plenty of time to shut off its river pumps before the material arrives here, Wise pointed out.

The concentrated mass may be diluted considerably before it arrives at East Liverpool, the chemist explained. The Federal Water Pollution Control Commission at Cincinnati said the slimy mass poses no danger to the public. It is made up of nontoxic materials, the federal agency said.

Donald Craik, manager of the Midland Municipal Authority, said he will travel upriver to obtain a sample of the polluted water to determine if it can be purified or if the Midland filtration plant will have to be shut down.

Midland's water plant produces 4,000,000 gallons a day and holds the same amount in reserve.

and a stocking cap on his head.

Police said there were no customers in the store at the time. Business was unusually slow because of the Halloween "trick-or-treat" night.

The stolen Pontiac was found approximately a mile north of Brookside Park on Route 7.

Police later learned that an auto had been reported stolen between 3 p.m. Thursday and 7 this morning from a parking place near the Y Inn at Rogers. They speculated the stickup men may have made their way to the spot on loot and stolen the car to continue their getaway.

ONE OF the stickup men cut his hand, perhaps severely, when a glass broke as he vaulted over the low enclosure around the manager's office at the market.

The robber placed his hand on a glass panel set in the enclosure where customers' checks are cashed. As he leaped over the counter, the glass broke and cut his hand, police said. But the man also vaulted the enclosure in leaving the office.

A package of $1 bills was dropped inside the office. Investigators found $21 in change which the robbers also dropped just outside the door of the market.

The BCII investigator arrived at police headquarters before 9 this morning. He made a preliminary examination of the stolen car and then went to the market to examine physical evidence there and talk with employes.

Kenneth Mooney, off-duty police captain, was among the employes forced to lie on the floor while the robbbery was in progress. He works at the store in his spare time, as do Charles E. (Bill) Tice, another captain, and several other officers. Tice was in a stockroom of the store at the time.

Ronald Crognagle of Beaver Falls, the manager, entered the store from a stockroom while the stickup was in progress and also was forced to lie on the floor.

Computer

East Liverpool will send and receive information on a machine resembling a Teletype. It operates with a keyboard similar to a typewriter.

All Ohio Highway Patrol posts, 35 sheriff's departments, and 110 local police agencies in the state already have signified that they will join the national network. The computer keyboards are being installed at the rate of 19 a week, but East Liverpool police have not been advised when their machine is expected to arrive.

The municipality will pay $100 monthly toward operation of the local system and the federal government will contribute approximately $250, the chief said.

Millions of pieces of information already are stored in the computers for use of local law enforcement agencies. The information includes facts on cars stolen anywhere in the U.S.; extraditable felons; stolen securities, money and other identifiable property.

In addition to linking East Liverpool to the network, the computer system will allow local officers to make direct contact with any other individual department in the country which also is part of the system.

Several months ago, the National Crime Information Center said it had data on file on 16,449 wanted persons, 133,174 stolen vehicles, 124,696 stolen, missing and recovered guns, 49,682 articles sought and 32,604 suspicious license plates listed by enforcement agencies who subscribe to LETS. The center also has crime records from 48 states, although some are not yet hooked into the network.

Officer Brookes offered this explanation of how the "stored" information from several states might help law enforcement agencies:

An auto is stolen in East Liverpool. The local department feeds the facts into the system.

The same auto is used in an armed robbery in Chicago. The Chicago department furnishes additional information to the network.

An officer in Memphis, Tenn., spots a suspicious car moving along the street and radios the license number and description to his headquarters. The Memphis operator feeds a question into the computer.

Within seconds, the Memphis patrol car operator knows that he is trailing a car which was stolen in East Liverpool and was used in a stickup in Chicago. He knows that he should approach the occupants with caution because they probably are armed.

Authorities said the information is fed back so quickly through the computer system that the officer in the patrol car can be given data in the time that it takes him to trail a suspect only a block or two.

The system eventually will link every law enforcement agency in the nation, directly or indirectly. In cases where small town departments do not have direct tie-ins, they may communicate through the nearest department which does.

"I believe this advance in law enforcement is on a par with the adoption of two-way radios and the standardization of fingerprint techniques," the chief said. "It will be a major deterrent to inter-state crime."

Although the Columbia River, in western United States and Canada, is about 1400 miles long, it flows into the Pacific Ocean at a point only about 450 miles in a straight line from its source.

McKenna, Johnson Battle For Court Post

A Jefferson County judge and a Canfield attorney will fight it out at the polls in the general election Tuesday for one of two vacancies on the bench of the recently - realigned 7th District Court of Appeals.

The candidate are James R. McKenna of Mingo Junction, judge of a Jefferson County Court in Toronto, and Atty. Nils P. Johnson of Canfield, who formerly served in the court, losing in the last election.

McKenna won a three-way battle for the Democratci nomination in the May primaries, defeating two Youngstown men. Johnson was unopposed in the Republican primary. Their names will appear Tuesday without party labels on the nonpartisan judicial ballot.

The holdover judges are John J. Lynch Jr. and Joseph E. O'Neill, both of Youngstown and both Democrats.

The vacancy occurred when the former 7th District Court area was split into two districts. The area now known as the 7th Distrct Court of Appeals is comprised of Columbiana, Jefferson, Harrison, Mahoning, Monroe, Noble, Carroll and Belmont counties.

Five other counties were set aside to form the new 11th District Court of Appeals territory. They are Lake, Ashtabula, Geauga, Trumbull and Portage.

Incumbent Judge George M. Jones, a Republican, resides in Trumbull County. He moved to the bench of the 11th District Court following the realignment.

Computer

tended a school on the operation at the Ohio Highway Patrol barracks in Massillon.

East Liverpool will send and receive information on a machine resembling a Teletype. It operates with a keyboard similar to a typewriter.

All Ohio Highway Patrol posts, 35 sheriff's departments, and 110 local police agencies in the state already have signified that they will join the national network. The computer keyboards are being installed at the rate of 19 a week, but East Liverpool police have not been advised when their machine is expected to arrive.

The municipality will pay $100 monthly toward operation of the local system and the federal government will contribute approximately $250, the chief said.

Millions of pieces of information already are stored in the computers for use of local law enforcement agencies. The information includes facts on cars stolen anywhere in the U.S.; extraditable felons; stolen securities, money and other identifiable property.

In addition to linking East Liverpool to the network, the computer system will allow local officers to make direct contact with any other individual department in the country which also is part of the system.

Several months ago, the National Crime Information Center said it had data on file on 16,449 wanted persons, 133,174 stolen vehicles, 124,696 stolen, missing and recovered guns, 49,682 articles sought and 32,604 suspicious license plates listed by enforcement agencies who subscribe to LETS. The center also has crime records from 48 states, although some are not yet hooked into the network.

Officer Brookes offered this explanation of how the "stored" information from several states might help law enforcement agencies:

An auto is stolen in East Liverpool. The local department feeds the facts into the system.

The same auto is used in an armed robbery in Chicago. The Chicago department furnishes additional information to the network.

An officer in Memphis, Tenn., spots a suspicious car moving along the street and radios the license number and description to his headquarters. The Memphis operator feeds a question into the computer.

Within seconds, the Memphis patrol car operator knows that he is trailing a car which was stolen in East Liverpool and was used in a stickup in Chicago. He knows that he should approach the occupants with caution because they probably are armed.

Authorities said the information is fed back so quickly through the computer system that the officer in the patrol car can be given data in the time that it takes him to trail a suspect only a block or two.

The system eventually will link every law enforcement agency in the nation, directly or indirectly. In cases where small town departments do not have direct tie-ins, they may communicate through the nearest department which does.

"I believe this advance in law enforcement is on a par with the adoption of two-way radios and the standardization of fingerprint techniques," the chief said. "It will be a major deterrent to inter-state crime."

ANSWER—NO! You only get out of your freezer what you put into it. In fact, in freezing meat, it tends to lose some of it's tenderness and quality unless it is processed properly. Our Flash-Freeze method assures your meats of retaining the high quality. Stop in, let us explain it to you.

faces a possible cut in state aide amounting to approximately $300,000. The Rev. George S. Stewart, president of the Hancock County School Service Personnel Association, said he had talked to a number of delegates and was informed that legislature would not allow such a cut to occur.

The administration, when asked at several points if it would grant the pay increase, had this comment:

"The school system should pay for the job to be done. This is what we are doing. We pay a fair wage for what is being done. We don't want the men to work overtime. We do not consider this good for either the worker or the school. Many of the jobs in the system are considered as part time."

Dr. Wyland informed Pietranton that he would not recommend the across - the-board increase, but would be willing to sit down with the employes in each category and discuss their wages separately to determine if any adjustments were possible, he said.

The school service personnel rejected this plan.

In defending the new wage scale, Dr. Wyland noted that "the school must hire fully-qualified people or maintenance work will not be done." The scale will allow people presently employe by us to move into the higher paid maintenance jobs. The lack of such scale maintenance people has resulted in the excessive overtime paid out by the schools in past years.

Dr. Wyland said he did not expect service personnel to work 12 hours a day, five to six days a week with some of these people holding down two jobs.

He added this cannot be done without a man's work suffering because of the long hours.

derstanding. However, these cn be solved with a strong coordinated effort between state and federal agencies with local participation.

"At present a legislative committee is meeting throughout Ohio attempting to find solutions to these problems and the needs of the urban areas. These will be studied, and recommendations made to the 128th General Assembly.

"In the 107th General Assembly a new department of urban affairs will set up to have responsibility in community affairs and to give technical assistance to urban and rural governments.

"As a Representative I have helped obtain a technical institute, get highway improvements, sponsor an air pollution curb act, establish a new state park in Jefferson County, and I would continue to work for improvements in the 30th Senatorial District and Ohio if elected."

the best education system in the nation. We are not there yet, but are moving rapidly in that direction.

"I have supported legislation to control air and water pollution, and plan to continue my interest in these problems.

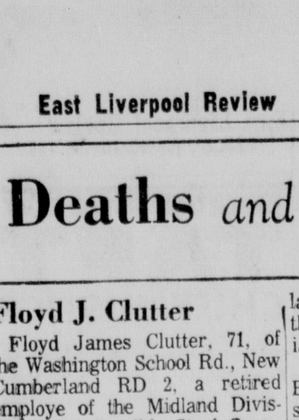

"In the last three years, Ohio has had a 45 per cent increase in use of recreation facilities, and must meet the continuing need for more accommodations.

"I strongly believe in a balanced budget and fiscal responsibility. In addition to a balanced budget, Ohio has the lowest taxes of any industrial state, and does not have a state income tax. Ohio is second in the nation for having the fewest number of government employes per capita."

faces a possible cut in state aide amounting to approximately $300,000. The Rev. George S. Stewart, president of the Hancock County School Service Personnel Association, said he had talked to a number of delegates and was informed that legislature would not allow such a cut to occur.

The administration, when asked at several points if it would grant the pay increase, had this comment:

"The school system should pay for the job to be done. This is what we are doing. We pay a fair wage for what is being done. We don't want the men to work overtime. We do not consider this good for either the worker or the school. Many of the jobs in the system are considered as part time."

Dr. Wyland informed Pietrantton that he would not recommend the across - the-board increase, but would be willing to sit down with the employes in each category and discuss their wages separately to determine if any adjustments were possible, he said.

The school service personnel rejected this plan.

In defending the new wage scale, Dr. Wyland noted that "the school must hire fully-qualified people or maintenance work will not be done." The scale will allow people presently employe by us to move into the higher paid maintenance jobs. The lack of such scale maintenance people has resulted in the excessive overtime paid out by the schools in past years.

Dr. Wyland said he did not expect service personnel to work 12 hours a day, five to six days a week with some of these people holding down two jobs.

He added this cannot be done without a man's work suffering because of the long hours.

"At present a legislative committee is meeting throughout Ohio attempting to find solutions to these problems and the needs of the urban areas. These will be studied, and recommendations made to the 128th General Assembly.

"In the 107th General Assembly a new department of urban affairs will set up to have responsibility in community affairs and to give technical assistance to urban and rural governments.

"I have supported legislation to control air and water pollution, and plan to continue my interest in these problems.

"In the last three years, Ohio has had a 45 per cent increase in use of recreation facilities, and must meet the continuing need for more accommodations.

"I strongly believe in a balanced budget and fiscal responsibility. In addition to a balanced budget, Ohio has the lowest taxes of any industrial state, and does not have a state income tax. Ohio is second in the nation for having the fewest number of government employes per capita."

Bombing

p.m., two hours before he went on the air.

Johnson himself, obviously aware of speculation that he might time a bombing halt to help Humphrey, declared that the action was determined by responses from North Vietnam to his terms.

He said these began developing Sunday night and continued through Monday.

A round of consultations within the government and with South Vietnam followed, and he made the final decision to order that "all air, naval, and artillery bombardment of North Vietnam cease as of 8:00 a.m., Washington time, this morning."

Johnson warned that his arrangements with North Vietnam are not foolproof and he held open by implication the possibility the bombing would be resumed if the North Vietnamese went on the offensive.

"We could be misled—and we are prepared for such a contingency," he said. "We pray to God it does not occur."

Johnson started the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965. At the heart of the deal he made to bring it to an end is an agreement that the Paris peace talks will enter a new phase next Wednesday.

At that time representatives of both the South Vietnamese government and its enemy, the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, take their places at the negotiating table.

The President did not say specifically why he thought the North Vietnamese had finally decided to make terms on ending the bombing, but he suggested that they might have acted because they no longer saw a chance of victory in South Vietnam.

He said the Saigon government had "grown steadily stronger" that South Vietnam's army was increased to a million men, and that U.S. troops under Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, Jr., and his predecessor, Gen. William C. Westmoreland have "produced truly remarkable results."

Serious negotiations on the bombing issue began during the second week in October after the North Vietnamese in Paris began to ask direct and obviously interested questions about what Johnson had in mind.

On at least two occasions—about Oct. 16 and again last week—there were worldwide expectations that a bombing halt was only hours away. They did not develop. Officials now say hard bargining with Hanoi was then under way.

Johnson said he had reached his decision "in the belief that this action can lead to progress toward a peaceful settlement of the Vietnamese war." But again he tempered his hopes with warning.

"It should be clear to all of us at the new phase of negotiations which opens on Nov. 6th does not, repeat does not, mean that a stable peace has yet come to Southeast Asia. There may well be very hard fighting ahead. Certainly there is going to be some very hard negotiating. . ."

Apart from expanding the peace talks by adding the Saigon government and the National Liberation Front, the arrangement calls for re-establishing the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam and for a stop to enemy terror attacks on the cities and towns of the South.

Hours before Johnson acted enemy rockets fell on Saigon but U.S. officials said this did not violate the new bomb-halt arrangement, not then in effect.

Restoration of the DMZ has long been advocated by the United States in the Paris peace talks as a means of de-escalating the war.

For several years enemy forces have struck from or through the zone at American and allied forces in the northern part of South Vietnam.

U.S. bombers will continue to attack troops and supplies moving on the trails in Laos. U.S. commanders have orders to continue pressing the ground war in South Vietnam.

Officials also said Abrams has orders allowing him to retaliate quickly, without asking Washington, if the enemy attack from the DMZ or shell U.S. forces south of it.

Johnson said Thursday night that the decision to end the bombing was consistent with the requirements he had stated over the years.

He recalled that last August he had said he would not take the step without "good reason to believe that the other side intends seriously, seriously, to join us in de-escalating the war and moving seriously toward peace."

In his speech he made the case that he had found "good reason" in whatever responses he got from Hanoi plus the situation on the ground.

An estimated 40,000 or more North Vietnamese have been pulled out of the South in recent weeks, and there has been a lull in enemy offensive operations.

Last weekend Johnson summoned Gen. Abrams home from Saigon for a final face-to-face talk on Abrams' view of the bombing halt.

Abrams reportedly told the President he could live with a bombing halt because the North Vietnamese, having pulled back in various strategic areas, would require about a week to begin launching any offensive operations and he would thus have time to start counter-action.

"The Joint Chiefs of Staff, all military men, have assured me," Johnson said, "and Gen. Abrams firmly asserted to me on Tuesday in that early, 2:30 a.m. meeting—that in their military judgment this action (to end the bombing) should be taken now, and this action would not result in any increase in American casualties."

On March 31, in a bid to get peace talks started, he limited the attacks to the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, which he said exempted 90 per cent of the people and about three-fourths of that country's territory from attack.

The meetings in Paris followed, beginning May 13, but on North Vietnam's condition that no peace-making issues would be negotiated until all "acts of war" against its territory had stopped.

North Vietnamese spokesmen in Paris said that "acts of war" included reconnaissance over its territory.

Officials said that North Vietnamese leaders understand that the reconnaissance flights will continue with unarmed planes.

Johnson ordered the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965 at a time when — as officials later admitted—South Vietnam was probably within a few weeks of collapse.

The bombing strategy then had two major purposes: To give the South Vietnamese a massive morale boost by carrying the war to enemy territory, and to cut down sharply on infiltration.

The bombing, followed by massive introduction of U.S. ground forces later in 1965, checked the tide of defeat in the South.

Officials gradually came to admit, however, that infiltration could not be effectively controlled by the bombing. After the Paris peace talks started May 13 infiltration soared during the summer to an estimated 30,000 men a month, according to Washington estimates—two to three times higher than the year before.

The bombing aroused world wide protests and cost U.S. prestige in many countries.

North Vietnam counted on this opposition, especially as demonstrated in the United States, to compel Johnson to halt the bombing unconditionally.

But, meanwhile, the bombing had become, in Johnson's view, his trump card for pressuring the North Vietnamese to negotiate.

He recalled that on March 31, when he limited the bombing, he also announced that he would not seek re-election. He said that since then he had "devoted every resource of the presidency to the search for peace in Southeast Asia."

Board Will Issue Election Supplies

The Columbiana County Election Board said today it will distribute supplies Saturday and Monday for the general election Tuesday.

Precinct supplies for the northern county area will be distributed Saturday from 9 to 11 a. m. at the board's Lisbon office in the Hill Building. Presiding judges will calll for the supplies.

Supplies for East Liverpool area precincts will be distributed Monday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the board's local office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall. Those for the Wellsville area, including Yellow Creek Township and the Glasgow Precinct of Madison Township, will be distributed Monday from 7 to 9 p.m.. at the water department office in Wellsville.

Meanwhile, 768 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots were issued before the deadline Friday at 4 p.m. They were required to be back in the board's hands by noon today if they're to be counted at the polls Tuesday.

The board has issued 758 ballots under the Ohio "soldier voting" law to service personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S. The ballots may be applied for until noon Saturday and they may be returned as late as noon on election day. The absentee ballot demand was on nearly the same level as for the 1964 and 1960 presidential elections.

Volunteer firemen said there was nothng except some tool and garden equipment in the building, which was located some distance from the house. The garage did not have electricity.

James Todd, meanwhile, suffered another loss Thursday morning when the east wall of his fire-razed auto body shop on Jail Alley fell outward and damaged the end of his house trailer.

Fire caused by a spark from a welding torch destroyed the 30-by-50-foot concrete block building Tuesday noon. Todd lost all his equipment and two trucks and a sedan.

Tariff Study Gets Sutherland And Percy Approval

Sen. Charles Percy, Illinois Republican, and Dr. James Sutherland, Republican 18th Congressional District candidate, in a joint appearance at Steubenville Thursday stressed the importance of examining the tariffs dealing with steel and pottery imports.

Dr. Sutherland said the imports are hurting domestic industries, particularly those in the 18th District.

The two spoke at a luncheon, followed by a joint press conference at the Ft. Steuben Hotel. Sutherland later appeared before students of the College of Steubenville.

Sen. Percy said Richard Nixon, GOP presidential candidate, "has a good but not certain chance" of winning Tuesday's election. He said the voters of the 18th District should give Nixon "at least one section of Congress with which he can work for a program of progress."

Earlier this week at East Liverpool, Dr. Sutherland expressed his opinion on Medicare. "It has been rumored my candidacy represents an effort to remove Medicare. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The program has benefitted millions of Americans, and it would be cruel to remove them from the protection the elderly have under the plan. I will continue to work for improvement of the program."

Ramon Novarro, Star Of Silent Movies, Slain

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ramon Novarro, the dashing Latin lover who was the first "Ben Hur" on the silent screen, has died violently—33 years after he quit movie stardom for a life of quiet luxury and occasional television character roles.

The nude, bludgeoned body of the 69-year-old actor was found Thursday on a bed in his $150,000 home.

Novarro, a life-long bachelor, lived alone in the Spanish-style whtie brick home. His death was reported by Edward Weber, 42, the actor's longtime secretary who had been helping Novarro recently with an autobiography.

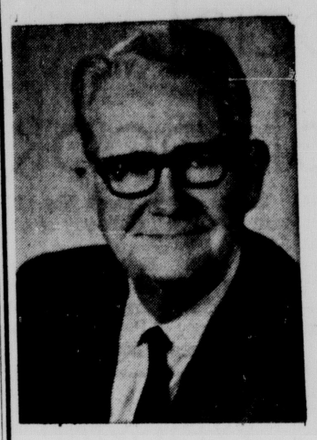

Police said Novarro's head and upper body bore signs of a fierce beating, but that the death instrument had not been located. Investigators conceded they had few clues other than the evidence of a savage struggle in three rooms of the house.

They said bloody clothing, believed to have been Novarro's, was found in ivy bushes outside.

Bombing

p.m., two hours before he went on the air.

Johnson himself, obviously aware of speculation that he might time a bombing halt to help Humphrey, declared that the action was determined by responses from North Vietnam to his terms.

He said these began developing Sunday night and continued through Monday.

A round of consultations within the government and with South Vietnam followed, and he made the final decision to order that "all air, naval, and artillery bombardment of North Vietnam cease as of 8:00 a.m., Washington time, this morning."

Johnson warned that his arrangements with North Vietnam are not foolproof and he held open by implication the possibility the bombing would be resumed if the North Vietnamese went on the offensive.

"We could be misled—and we are prepared for such a contingency," he said. "We pray to God it does not occur."

Johnson started the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965. At the heart of the deal he made to bring it to an end is an agreement that the Paris peace talks will enter a new phase next Wednesday.

At that time representatives of both the South Vietnamese government and its enemy, the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, take their places at the negotiating table.

The President did not say specifically why he thought the North Vietnamese had finally decided to make terms on ending the bombing, but he suggested that they might have acted because they no longer saw a chance of victory in South Vietnam.

He said the Saigon government had "grown steadily stronger" that South Vietnam's army was increased to a million men, and that U.S. troops under Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, Jr., and his predecessor, Gen. William C. Westmoreland have "produced truly remarkable results."

Serious negotiations on the bombing issue began during the second week in October after the North Vietnamese in Paris began to ask direct and obviously interested questions about what Johnson had in mind.

On at least two occasions—about Oct. 16 and again last week—there were worldwide expectations that a bombing halt was only hours away. They did not develop. Officials now say hard bargining with Hanoi was then under way.

Johnson said he had reached his decision "in the belief that this action can lead to progress toward a peaceful settlement of the Vietnamese war." But again he tempered his hopes with warning.

"It should be clear to all of us at the new phase of negotiations which opens on Nov. 6th does not, repeat does not, mean that a stable peace has yet come to Southeast Asia. There may well be very hard fighting ahead. Certainly there is going to be some very hard negotiating. . ."

Apart from expanding the peace talks by adding the Saigon government and the National Liberation Front, the arrangement calls for re-establishing the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam and for a stop to enemy terror attacks on the cities and towns of the South.

Hours before Johnson acted enemy rockets fell on Saigon but U.S. officials said this did not violate the new bomb-halt arrangement, not then in effect.

Restoration of the DMZ has long been advocated by the United States in the Paris peace talks as a means of de-escalating the war.

For several years enemy forces have struck from or through the zone at American and allied forces in the northern part of South Vietnam.

U.S. bombers will continue to attack troops and supplies moving on the trails in Laos. U.S. commanders have orders to continue pressing the ground war in South Vietnam.

Officials also said Abrams has orders allowing him to retaliate quickly, without asking Washington, if the enemy attack from the DMZ or shell U.S. forces south of it.

Johnson said Thursday night that the decision to end the bombing was consistent with the requirements he had stated over the years.

He recalled that last August he had said he would not take the step without "good reason to believe that the other side intends seriously, seriously, to join us in de-escalating the war and moving seriously toward peace."

In his speech he made the case that he had found "good reason" in whatever responses he got from Hanoi plus the situation on the ground.

An estimated 40,000 or more North Vietnamese have been pulled out of the South in recent weeks, and there has been a lull in enemy offensive operations.

Last weekend Johnson summoned Gen. Abrams home from Saigon for a final face-to-face talk on Abrams' view of the bombing halt.

Abrams reportedly told the President he could live with a bombing halt because the North Vietnamese, having pulled back in various strategic areas, would require about a week to begin launching any offensive operations and he would thus have time to start counter-action.

"The Joint Chiefs of Staff, all military men, have assured me," Johnson said, "and Gen. Abrams firmly asserted to me on Tuesday in that early, 2:30 a.m. meeting—that in their military judgment this action (to end the bombing) should be taken now, and this action would not result in any increase in American casualties."

On March 31, in a bid to get peace talks started, he limited the attacks to the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, which he said exempted 90 per cent of the people and about three-fourths of that country's territory from attack.

The meetings in Paris followed, beginning May 13, but on North Vietnam's condition that no peace-making issues would be negotiated until all "acts of war" against its territory had stopped.

North Vietnamese spokesmen in Paris said that "acts of war" included reconnaissance over its territory.

Officials said that North Vietnamese leaders understand that the reconnaissance flights will continue with unarmed planes.

Johnson ordered the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965 at a time when — as officials later admitted—South Vietnam was probably within a few weeks of collapse.

The bombing strategy then had two major purposes: To give the South Vietnamese a massive morale boost by carrying the war to enemy territory, and to cut down sharply on infiltration.

The bombing, followed by massive introduction of U.S. ground forces later in 1965, checked the tide of defeat in the South.

Officials gradually came to admit, however, that infiltration could not be effectively controlled by the bombing. After the Paris peace talks started May 13 infiltration soared during the summer to an estimated 30,000 men a month, according to Washington estimates—two to three times higher than the year before.

The bombing aroused world wide protests and cost U.S. prestige in many countries.

North Vietnam counted on this opposition, especially as demonstrated in the United States, to compel Johnson to halt the bombing unconditionally.

But, meanwhile, the bombing had become, in Johnson's view, his trump card for pressuring the North Vietnamese to negotiate.

He recalled that on March 31, when he limited the bombing, he also announced that he would not seek re-election. He said that since then he had "devoted every resource of the presidency to the search for peace in Southeast Asia."

Board Will Issue Election Supplies

The Columbiana County Election Board said today it will distribute supplies Saturday and Monday for the general election Tuesday.

Precinct supplies for the northern county area will be distributed Saturday from 9 to 11 a. m. at the board's Lisbon office in the Hill Building. Presiding judges will call for the supplies.

Supplies for East Liverpool area precincts will be distributed Monday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the board's local office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall. Those for the Wellsville area, including Yellow Creek Township and the Glasgow Precinct of Madison Township, will be distributed Monday from 7 to 9 p.m.. at the water department office in Wellsville.

Meanwhile, 768 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots were issued before the deadline Friday at 4 p.m. They were required to be back in the board's hands by noon today if they're to be counted at the polls Tuesday.

The board has issued 758 ballots under the Ohio "soldier voting" law to service personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S. The ballots may be applied for until noon Saturday and they may be returned as late as noon on election day. The absentee ballot demand was on nearly the same level as for the 1964 and 1960 presidential elections.

Tariff Study Gets Sutherland And Percy Approval

Sen. Charles Percy, Illinois Republican, and Dr. James Sutherland, Republican 18th Congressional District candidate, in a joint appearance at Steubenville Thursday stressed the importance of examining the tariffs dealing with steel and pottery imports.

Dr. Sutherland said the imports are hurting domestic industries, particularly those in the 18th District.

The two spoke at a luncheon, followed by a joint press conference at the Ft. Steuben Hotel. Sutherland later appeared before students of the College of Steubenville.

Sen. Percy said Richard Nixon, GOP presidential candidate, "has a good but not certain chance" of winning Tuesday's election. He said the voters of the 18th District should give Nixon "at least one section of Congress with which he can work for a program of progress."

Earlier this week at East Liverpool, Dr. Sutherland expressed his opinion on Medicare. "It has been rumored my candidacy represents an effort to remove Medicare. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The program has benefitted millions of Americans, and it would be cruel to remove them from the protection the elderly have under the plan. I will continue to work for improvement of the program."

Ramon Novarro, Star Of Silent Movies, Slain

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ramon Novarro, the dashing Latin lover who was the first "Ben Hur" on the silent screen, has died violently—33 years after he quit movie stardom for a life of quiet luxury and occasional television character roles.

The nude, bludgeoned body of the 69-year-old actor was found Thursday on a bed in his $150,000 home.

Novarro, a life-long bachelor, lived alone in the Spanish-style whtie brick home. His death was reported by Edward Weber, 42, the actor's longtime secretary who had been helping Novarro recently with an autobiography.

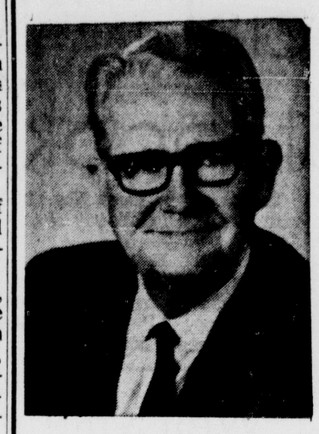

Police said Novarro's head and upper body bore signs of a fierce beating, but that the death instrument had not been located. Investigators conceded they had few clues other than the evidence of a savage struggle in three rooms of the house.

They said bloody clothing, believed to have been Novarro's, was found in ivy bushes outside.

Air War

been permitted to close the port of Haiphong.

The tight restrictions on targets, the firm ban against bombing populated areas—these, say the civilian leaders, were necessary to keep the war limited.

But even this limited bombing campaign which began on Feb. 7, 1965 has cost the United States 911 airplanes.

Most of the 469 Air Force men listed as killed in aircraft incidents died over the North. The same is true of most of 139 Navy men and some of the 102 Marine pilots and air crewmen killed aloft.

The Air Force lists 519 men missing, and most of these are either dead or captives in the North. This goes also for the bulk of 115 Navy men and some of the 88 Marines carried in the missing roster.

The bulk of 139 Air Force and 130 Navy men listed as captured also are believed to be in the North.

American warplanes have flown roughly 100,000 missions over the North since the campaign began.

The Pentagon says that a total of more than 2.8 million tons of bombs have been dropped on targets in both North and South Vietnam.

Claiming security reasons, it refuses to break down the totals between North and South.

But testimony before Congress by Secretary of the Air Force Harold Brown suggests that the tonnage dumped on North Vietnam accounted for roughly one-fifth of the over-all weight of bombs used in the Southeast Asia war.

Thus, the bomb tonnage over North Vietnam is roughly comparable to the 502,781 tons thrown against the Japanese in the Pacific in World War II and somewhat less than the 635,000 tons dropped by American bombers in the Korean war.

Over the years of the air war, McNamara and Johnson have sometimes shifted the objectives in order of importance, but for the most part the chief goal has been described as aiming to reduce the infiltration flow.

The first U.S. bombing of North Vietnam was in August 1964 in retaliation for PT boat attacks on American destroyers patrolling the Tonkin Gulf. After this brief incident, there were no more raids until the sustained air war against the North opened the following February.

When the attacks were ordered on Feb. 7, 1965, they were described by both the White House and McNamara as retaliatory, a strike-back at North Vietnam for Vietcong border attacks on U.S. bases in South Vietnam.

U.S. officials have steadfastly insisted over the years that they never intended the bombing would totally halt the aggression and its supporting infiltration from the North.

When McNamara was asked on Feb. 7 about future plans, he underscored a White House statement which said, in part:

"The key to the situation remains the cessation of infiltration from the North into the South."

In April, McNamara called attention to the introduction for the first time of regular combat units of the North Vietnamese army, and he said:

"The carefully controlled air strikes will continue as necessary to impede the infiltration and to persuade the North Vietnamese leadership that their aggression against the South must stop."

Johnson has placed his main stress on protecting U.S. fighting men and allied troops from suffering heavier casualties because of arms and ammunition brought down the infiltration trails from North Vietnam.

On Christmas eve in 1965 Johnson ordered the bombing of North Vietnam halted, but 37 days later, lacking any response from Hanoi, he ordered it resumed, saying that "if continued immunity is given to all that support North Vietnamese aggression, the cost in lives . . . will only be greatly increased."

Last February, about two months before limiting U.S. bombing to the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, Johnson declared that "we shall continue to give our men the protection it (the bombing) affords" until the United States receives a sign from Hanoi that North Vietnam would not step up its terrorism and aggression if the bombing were halted.

Otherwise, he said, "the enemy force in the South would be larger and better equipped. The war would be harder and longer. It would claim more American lives."

And on Sept. 10, about a month before the new U.S. peace initiative surfaced, Johnson told the American Legion national convention in New Orleans that he insisted the bombing would not stop until the United States is confident this would not lead to higher casualties.

Johnson, and senior U.S. military officers, are anxious that the demilitarized zone be truly neutralized and that North Vietnam agree not to shell U.S. and South Vietnamese positions from north of the DMZ.

In the absence of such an agreement, military men believe it is imperative to bring U.S. air power to bear in the panhandle against North Vietnamese artillery positions, troop concentrations, supply points and possible invasion springboards.

McNamara, who designed the blueprint of the U.S. air war against the North, has appeared over the years to shuffle objectives in their order of importance.

On Feb. 24, 1967, McNamara said that the first U.S. objective in opening the air war in North Vietnam was to raise the morale of the South Vietnamese who, at that time, were facing military defeat in the ground war.

He then listed as a second objective "to either reduce the level of infiltration of men and equipment from North to South or to increase the cost of that infiltration."

Several months later, on Aug. 25, 1967, McNamara promoted the reduction of infiltration to the status of "our primary objective," and there it remained.

The morale-boosting objective was dropped to second place, and a third major goal consistently has sought to make clear to Hanoi that it "would have to pay a price in the North" for continued aggression against the South.

Infiltration figures show clearly that the primary objective has not been reached—not by a long shot.

In all of 1964, the year before the bombing campaign began, there were 12,404 infiltrators from the North.

In 1965 this more than doubled to 26,000, then to 57,700 in 1966 and 53,300 in 1967.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, former U.S. commander in Vietnam, has said that an "invasion from the North" began in November and December 1967, as the enemy prepared for the Tet offensive.

The infiltration rose to flood tide early this year, even before Johnson ordered the bombing area restricted in a move to encourage North Vietnam to open negotiations looking toward peace.

Currently, experts estimate that some 200,000 North Vietnamese have infiltrated into South Vietnam during 1968 and forecast the total will reach more than 262,000 for the entire year.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford contended that the reduced bombing area permitted under Johnson's March 31 order did not constitute a drawback because American aircraft could, and did, intensify their attacks in the more limited area through which the infiltration routes had to pass.

Air Force and civilian officials say that the sortie rate is roughly the same this year as last year. A sortie is one flight by one plane.

1 Dead, Another Held After Shooting In Bar

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — One man is dead and another was held following a shooting incident early today in a bar.

Detectives said Lloyd Dillon, 47, was killed by a shot in the chest.

John Sadowsky, 61, was being held without charges. Facts in the case were to be presented to the prosecutor.

Gunshot Wound Fatal

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The Warren County sheriff's office reported that Hubert Crosthwait, 57, died early today of a gunshot wound apparently inflicted during a family argument.

Reaction

"U.S. peace falsehoods are a cheap tricky plot to obtain more votes for the Democrat party." But it usually takes a day or longer for Communist governments to formulate their instructions to their propaganda organs.

Reliable informants in Saigon said President Nguyen Van Thieu bitterly refused to go along with the bombing halt decision. He termed it "unilateral" and said he would make an address to a special session of the National Assembly Saturday.

Other Saigon government and potitical leaders were bitter. Nguyen Ba Luong, chairman of the House of Representatives, said: "Why don't the Americans continue to prevent the enemy from carrying out aggression? Why don't the Americans help us to go through to victory and freedom?"

In Thailand, a neighboring country in which the Communists are fomenting a guerrilla insurgency in the north, the Thai Cabinet went into an emergency session to discuss the U.S. move, but there was no official statement. More than 80 per cent of the bombing of North Vietnam has been carried out from six bases in Thailand where some 40,000 U.S. Air Force men are stationed.

South Korea, one of America's principal allies in the war, expressed guarded support for the President's decision. President Chung Hee Park said in a statement: "It will be most fortunate if the announced bombing halt opens the road to an honorable and permanent peace in Vietnam without weakening fighting strength of the allied troops."

New Zealand Prime Minister Keith Holyoake, whose government also has troops in Vietnam, called Johnson's decision "a major step in the search for peace" and added: "Everything depends on the good faith which the North Vietnamese and their Viet Cong supporters are prepared to display in return for this magnanimous gesture."

Reaction was optimistic in Australia, which has 8,000 troops in Vietnam. The Melbourne Herald said the world must hope the halt "can lead. . .to a healing of the terrible wounds of Vietnam and a reducing of the risk of spreading the war."

Tass, the Sovet news agency, reported President Johnson's order without comment.

In Western European capitals, hope was expressed that the action would be a step towards peace.

The West German government said the decision proves again the U.S. government's readiness to end the war.

Robert Means Sentenced

Driver Given Jail Term, Suspension For Fatality

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court at Lisbon Thursday sentenced an East Liverpool area youth convicted of traffic manslaughter and ordered a pre-sentence investigation for an East Palestine man who stood trial for auto theft.

Robert Means, 18, of the Y. & O. Rd. was sentenced to six months in the County Jail and was ordered to surrender his driver's license for three years.

A 1955 sports coupe Means purchased June 20 crashed the next day on the Freeway just inside the city limits, killing his hitchhiking passenger, Ricky Jolly, 16, of East Liverpool RD 1. Means and his companion, Jerry Lyle, 18, of Oak St., were injured. Means claimed he was not driving. Lyle testified Means was at the wheel.

Joseph E. Hill, 34, found guilty Oct. 17 of a charge of stealing a car owned by Leroy Henderson of East Palestine RD 1, asked for probation yesterday. The court deferred sentencing pending the investigator's report. Hill testified he had Henderson's consent to take the car.

Delbert H. Flitcraft of Alliance, who pleaded not guilty July 3 to a charge of malicious entry June 5 at the Knox Township cottage of Dr. C. J. Lehwald of Salem, yesterday changed his plea to guilty and requested probation. The judge ordered an investigation and report.

Air War

been permitted to close the port of Haiphong.

The tight restrictions on targets, the firm ban against bombing populated areas—these, say the civilian leaders, were necessary to keep the war limited.

But even this limited bombing campaign which began on Feb. 7, 1965 has cost the United States 911 airplanes.

Most of the 469 Air Force men listed as killed in aircraft incidents died over the North. The same is true of most of 139 Navy men and some of the 102 Marine pilots and air crewmen killed aloft.

The Air Force lists 519 men missing, and most of these are either dead or captives in the North. This goes also for the bulk of 115 Navy men and some of the 88 Marines carried in the missing roster.

The bulk of 139 Air Force and 130 Navy men listed as captured also are believed to be in the North.

American warplanes have flown roughly 100,000 missions over the North since the campaign began.

The Pentagon says that a total of more than 2.8 million tons of bombs have been dropped on targets in both North and South Vietnam.

Claiming security reasons, it refuses to break down the totals between North and South.

But testimony before Congress by Secretary of the Air Force Harold Brown suggests that the tonnage dumped on North Vietnam accounted for roughly one-fifth of the over-all weight of bombs used in the Southeast Asia war.

Thus, the bomb tonnage over North Vietnam is roughly comparable to the 502,781 tons thrown against the Japanese in the Pacific in World War II and somewhat less than the 635,000 tons dropped by American bombers in the Korean war.

Over the years of the air war, McNamara and Johnson have sometimes shifted the objectives in order of importance, but for the most part the chief goal has been described as aiming to reduce the infiltration flow.

The first U.S. bombing of North Vietnam was in August 1964 in retaliation for PT boat attacks on American destroyers patrolling the Tonkin Gulf. After this brief incident, there were no more raids until the sustained air war against the North opened the following February.

When the attacks were ordered on Feb. 7, 1965, they were described by both the White House and McNamara as retaliatory, a strike-back at North Vietnam for Vietcong border attacks on U.S. bases in South Vietnam.

U.S. officials have steadfastly insisted over the years that they never intended the bombing would totally halt the aggression and its supporting infiltration from the North.

When McNamara was asked on Feb. 7 about future plans, he underscored a White House statement which said, in part:

"The key to the situation remains the cessation of infiltration from the North into the South."

In April, McNamara called attention to the introduction for the first time of regular combat units of the North Vietnamese army, and he said:

"The carefully controlled air strikes will continue as necessary to impede the infiltration and to persuade the North Vietnamese leadership that their aggression against the South must stop."

Johnson has placed his main stress on protecting U.S. fighting men and allied troops from suffering heavier casualties because of arms and ammunition brought down the infiltration trails from North Vietnam.

On Christmas eve in 1965 Johnson ordered the bombing of North Vietnam halted, but 37 days later, lacking any response from Hanoi, he ordered it resumed, saying that "if continued immunity is given to all that support North Vietnamese aggression, the cost in lives . . . will only be greatly increased."

Last February, about two months before limiting U.S. bombing to the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, Johnson declared that "we shall continue to give our men the protection it (the bombing) affords" until the United States receives a sign from Hanoi that North Vietnam would not step up its terrorism and aggression if the bombing were halted.

Otherwise, he said, "the enemy force in the South would be larger and better equipped. The war would be harder and longer. It would claim more American lives."

And on Sept. 10, about a month before the new U.S. peace initiative surfaced, Johnson told the American Legion national convention in New Orleans that he insisted the bombing would not stop until the United States is confident this would not lead to higher casualties.

Johnson, and senior U.S. military officers, are anxious that the demilitarized zone be truly neutralized and that North Vietnam agree not to shell U.S. and South Vietnamese positions from north of the DMZ.

In the absence of such an agreement, military men believe it is imperative to bring U.S. air power to bear in the panhandle against North Vietnamese artillery positions, troop concentrations, supply points and possible invasion springboards.

McNamara, who designed the blueprint of the U.S. air war against the North, has appeared over the years to shuffle objectives in their order of importance.

On Feb. 24, 1967, McNamara said that the first U.S. objective in opening the air war in North Vietnam was to raise the morale of the South Vietnamese who, at that time, were facing military defeat in the ground war.

He then listed as a second objective "to either reduce the level of infiltration of men and equipment from North to South or to increase the cost of that infiltration."

Several months later, on Aug. 25, 1967, McNamara promoted the reduction of infiltration to the status of "our primary objective," and there it remained.

The morale-boosting objective was dropped to second place, and a third major goal consistently has sought to make clear to Hanoi that it "would have to pay a price in the North" for continued aggression against the South.

Infiltration figures show clearly that the primary objective has not been reached—not by a long shot.

In all of 1964, the year before the bombing campaign began, there were 12,404 infiltrators from the North.

In 1965 this more than doubled to 26,000, then to 57,700 in 1966 and 53,300 in 1967.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, former U.S. commander in Vietnam, has said that an "invasion from the North" began in November and December 1967, as the enemy prepared for the Tet offensive.

The infiltration rose to flood tide early this year, even before Johnson ordered the bombing area restricted in a move to encourage North Vietnam to open negotiations looking toward peace.

Currently, experts estimate that some 200,000 North Vietnamese have infiltrated into South Vietnam during 1968 and forecast the total will reach more than 262,000 for the entire year.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford contended that the reduced bombing area permitted under Johnson's March 31 order did not constitute a drawback because American aircraft could, and did, intensify their attacks in the more limited area through which the infiltration routes had to pass.

Air Force and civilian officials say that the sortie rate is roughly the same this year as last year. A sortie is one flight by one plane.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

'Grounds' For Thought

DEAR HELOISE: Here's how I store my extra coffee cups so they take up less space on my shelves.

Heloise

I use empty, one-half gallon plastic coated milk cartons.

First I pull the top completely open, wash and dry the carton real good. Then stack in five or six cups. My regular-size cups fit in very nicely. Fold the top of the carton over and mash it down flat.

Takes up very little space on the shelf. The cartons can be laid on their sides and stacked on top of one another.

I plan to cover mine with adhesive-backed plastic to match the decor of my kitchen, but I was so delighted with my discovery, just had to write right away and share it.

PENNY McGILL.

And we thank you no end, Penny, my luv.

You're a smart cookie for thinking up that one. A space saver that costs you nothing. Saves washing seldom used cups, and all that money you didn't spend was right down my alley. And wouldn't they be great for packing those cups when moving?

Bless you.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a little hint I would like to pass along to other working girls who change purses often.

In doing this, at one time or another we all find that we've left something in the other purse that we need. Right?

Well, I've solved this.

In my bedroom I keep a large shoe box covered with pretty paper (so as to be decorative as well as useful).

If I'm going to carry another purse the next day, I dump the entire contents of my handbag into this box when I get home.

Next morning, I choose another bag and dump everything from the box into it and away I go.

I can guarantee that if you do this, you'll never forget anything and always have all the paraphernalia you need, because you can see it better spread out in the shoe box in case you only want to take part of the stuff.

DEAR HELOISE: The brilliant colors of fall leaves can be preserved by dipping them in melted paraffin.

DEAR HELOISE: I clean my baby's high chair under the shower and it sure saves me many hours of scrubbing. (I always do this before cleaning the shower stall.)

I put the high chair under the shower, turn on the warm water and "let 'er roar". . .for about five minutes.

The strong spray of the shower removes all the dried food and fingerprints with very little effort on my part.

After turning the water off, I just sponge the tray and leave the high chair right in the shower stall to completely dry.

BUSY MOM.

Hip, Hip, hurray! Mom, you're terrific. We thank you muchly.

Here's a little tip for those of you who may not have a shower, or prefer to do it outside.

Just carry the high chair into the back yard. Spray it with a strong stream of water from the garden hose, then wash it with a sponge and some hot sudsy water.

Spray again to rinse good. Then just leave it in the shade to dry, or if you're in a hurry, wipe it off with a towel.

Dope Conviction Brings Elation From Policemen

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Lt. Burt Miller, head of the Cleveland Police Narcotics Squad, says his men feel "pretty good" about the narcotics conviction of former saxaphone player Roosevelt "Rip" Bivens.

The 45-year-old nightclub owner was found guilty on four counts of narcotics offenses Thursday by Common Pleas Judge John L. Angelotta.

"He has a lot of money and a lot of people behind him, and they said we'd never get him," said Miller. "He's pretty high up among the pushers. This should have an effect."

Bivens, owner of the Fountain Bleu on Carnegie Avenue, was convicted after a six-day trial. Key to the prosecution case was an informant who permitted himself to be "bugged" with a radio transmitter when he purchased four packets of cocaine from Bivens in March 1967. Tape recordings of Bivens' conversations with the informant were introduced at the trial.

Queen Victoria, an inveterate card player, became largely responsible for the playing of poker in England when she asked the U.S. minister to Great Britain for a set of rules and had them privately printed.

GOP Assails Democrat In Statement On Moore

By The Associated Press

A key Republican campaign worker has attacked Democratic State Chairman Rudolph DiTrapano for a statement DiTrapano made about Arch Moore's financial condition.

DiTrapano had criticized the Republican candidate for governor for refusing to submit personnel financial records to an "impartial" panel composed of former Republican Gov. Cecil Underwood and Democratic state Sen. Paul Kaufman.

The move was suggested by Moore's opponent, Democrat James Sprouse, who said Underwood and Kaufman should study the two candidates' records and make a public report.

MOORE, however, declined to go along with the plan because he said the matter was closed several months ago when he offered his records to newsmen.

DiTrapano, in a statement Wednesday, said Moore's action left a number of questions unanswered, such as whether Moore received a substantial amount of money from several large corporations.

However, Jim Ballard, Moore's campaign chairman, said Thursday:

"Moore's reputation and good conduct of his private and public affairs including all financial, professional and business transactions have always been above reproach until he had the courage to declare himself as a Republican candidate for governor and oppose the statehouse machine."

BALLARD dismissed DiTrapano's attack as "the utterly ridiculous and desperate whipping of a long dead, tired, old horse."

He said the statement indicates the Democrats have "conceded a Moore victory and that they are being driven frantic by the taste of defeat."

Ballard also attacked The Charleston Gazette for "its yellow journalism" and added that the Gazette and DiTrapano "personally affront the intelligence of every citizen of West Virginia."

Ballard said Sprouse "made thousands of dollars in the sale of valuable timber from his Pendleton County land deal" and since January 1965 "has received more than $600 per month as compensation in nontaxable expense money from the flower fund he said he destroyed."

U.S. Command In Viet Muzzles GIs On Bombing

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command in Vietnam muzzled its GIs today after President Johnson's bombing halt announcement, but the President's action aroused little enthusiasm and considerable criticism among the men.

The order went out from Gen. Creighton Abrams' headquarters to make no comment on the decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam. A spokesman said the order was issued in accordance with a directive barring members of the armed forces from voicing opinions on political matters or other things outside their competence. He said the bombing halt was a political matter, not military.

Before the directive was issued, however, newsmen gathered opinions from a number of soldiers. Much of the comment was adverse, and several men said they believed the purpose of Johnson's decision was to get Hubert H. Humphrey elected president.

Many expressed fear that after seven years of fighting and 29,000 American dead, the United States might settle for a peace that would let the Communists take over Vietnam. None thought the pace of the war would slow down.

Staff Sgt. Benjamin Estes of Gadsden, Ala., a Korean War veteran, said: "I just can't see us letting all those sacrifices be in vain. I'm willing to stay longer to get the thing really settled. If the war stops, it has to stop so there will be a permanent peace. If it's a Korean-type settlement it will all start up again in a while."

"I feel sorry for the guys in the field," said Spec. 4 George Gensel of San Francisco. "It will be a whole lot worse. Look what happened when we slowed the bombing before. Things got a whole lot worse."

Spec. 4 Fred Hyre, an Army mortician from Jacksonville, Fla., said: "I've seen the bodies of 8,000 GIs come through this year alone. It would be just great if the kids stop dying. But in the past the Communists haven't played square with us, and we can't forget that."

"I think it's just a deal to get Humphrey elected," said Spec. 4 Jim Heil of Chicago. "I'm afraid we're just setting ourselves up. But I guess it's worth the risk if it really finishes this damn war."

An Army Special Forces sergeant who declined to give his name said: "It doesn't really make any difference to me. Johnson can stop it or not stop it. I've got no faith in the Communists."

Spec. 4 Robert Kershaw of Florissant, Mo., said: "If it will get the GIs out of here, I say do it. My time is almost up, but there are a lot of guys coming behind me to do their tours."

"I don't think we should be here in the first place," said Pfc. Dennis Cassidy of Columbus, Ohio. "It looks like we gave in to an ultimatum from Hanoi, but I can't really tell."

"It will make a lot of people mad in the States if they've lost sons for nothing," said Pfc. James Nance of Muncie, Ind. "We have to hold communism here or it will just go on and on and grab everything it can in Southeast Asia. But if the bombing stops, maybe North Vietnam will start withdrawing troops. They have to realize they will not get anywhere sending troops down here to fight."

'World War I Week' Proclamation Issued

Mayor George E. Willshaw today issued a proclamation designating the period beginning Saturday as "World War I Veteran Week" in East Liverpool.

The mayor's proclamation pointed out that Nov. 11 will mark the 50th anniversary of the armistice that ended World War I.

Willshaw also said the veterans will conduct a sale Saturday of "Flanders Poppies" made by blind hospitalized veterans. He asked East Liverpool to join in the observance of the week and "wear a Flanders Poppy proudly."

Spec. 4 Robert Kershaw of Florissant, Mo., said: "If it will get the GIs out of here, I say do it. My time is almost up, but there are a lot of guys coming behind me to do their tours."

"I don't think we should be here in the first place," said Pfc. Dennis Cassidy of Columbus, Ohio. "It looks like we gave in to an ultimatum from Hanoi, but I can't really tell."

"It will make a lot of people mad in the States if they've lost sons for nothing," said Pfc. James Nance of Muncie, Ind. "We have to hold communism here or it will just go on and on and grab everything it can in Southeast Asia. But if the bombing stops, maybe North Vietnam will start withdrawing troops. They have to realize they will not get anywhere sending troops down here to fight."

While the presidential race, pitting Hubert H. Humphrey, Democrat; Richard M. Nixon, Republican, and George C. Wallace, American Independent, holds the most general interest, on the local level the primary interest is geared to the race for U. S. Senate, 25th Congressional District, the 47th District State Senate and the 13th District representative to the General Assembly .

Pennsylvanians also have the opportunity to vote for three other presidential tickets. These are Henning A. Blomen, Socialist Labor party; Fred Halstead, Militant Workers, and Dick Gregory, Peace and Freedom.

IN THE U. S. Senate race, Richard S. Schweiker, 42, of Worcester, a Republican, has been proving a tough opponent for Sen. Joseph Clark, Democrat incumbent.

Schweiker has served four terms at U. S. Congressman and has drawn the support of many sportsmen organizations because of his stand on the controversial gun control law. Clark, 66, is a former mayor of Philadelphia. He was elected to the Senate in 1956 and returned in 1962.

Also seeking the seat are Frank W. Gaydosh, 58, of Uniondale, a business executive running on the Constitutional ticket; Benson Perry, 40, of Philadelphia, Socialist Labor candidate, and Pearl Chertov, 47, of Philadelphia, Militant Workers candidate.

Richard L. Doolittle, 38, of Beaver Falls, a Republican, is challenging Congressman Frank M. Clark, 52, of Bessemer, the Democratic incumbent. Pennsylvanians also will vote on a Vietnam conflict veterans bonus. If approved, the Commonwealth will issue bonds totaling $28,000.000 to provide compensation for Viet veterans.

A total of 94,777 persons are registered and eligible to vote in Beaver County. This is 6,087 more than registered for the April primary.

In 1964, a total of 97,349 registered for the presidential election.

The Democrat party, with 56,606 regisstered, holds a 19,565 majority over the Republicans, who register 37,041 on the books. There are 1,130 registered as non-partisans, independents or as members of one of the minor political parties.

Ghost voting, voting machine not functioning properly, votes already registered on machine when the polls open, unauthorized personnel counting the ballots, people registered for assistance when there is no need for such assistance, bribery, curtain peeking, candidates serving as poll workers, judges of elections not trained in procedures for write in votes or how to tally write ins, and write in slot on machine locked or sealed with tape.

Billed As 'Homestead Exemption'

Backers Of Issue No. 2 Wary Of 'Key' Sentence

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If Ohio voters reject State Issue No. 2 next Tuesday, its supporters probably will blame the defeat on one sentence in the proposed constitutional amendment.

The question,, if approved, would allow the Ohio General Assembly to grant real estate tax exemptions to persons who own and occupy their homes. Amounts would be specified in enabling legislation.

Billed as the "homestead exemption" amendment, No. 2 was designed originally to grant tax relief to homeowners 65 years of age and older. However, while being considered by the laast legislature, it was expanded to include the following sentence:

"The General Assembly may also provide by law for a homestead exemption for all residents of Ohio who own and reside in the homestead . . . ."

Insiders said the study committee which added the sentence wanted to make provisions for assisting totally disabled taxpayers and other hardship cases.

Regardless of the motive behind it, the extra wording extends exemption authority beyond property owned by senior citizens.

Both Issue No. 2 and its ballot companion, No. 1, have been endorsed by Ohio's major interest groups but, unlike the $759 million state bond issue, No. 2 has been faring badly in recent public opinion polls.

No. 1 appears to have a "yes" majority at present. No. 2 has trailed in the few polls which have involved the amendments.

Leaders of the well-financed, "yes" campaign for both state issues avoided mentioning the "under 65" provision of No. 2 until the Ohio Information Committee (OIC) called for more discussion of the amendment's "total" impact.

Campaign literature was reworded to state the amendment would permit exemptions to Ohio homeowners "including those people 65 years and older.

State Sens. Theodore M. Gray, R-Piqua, and Frank W. King, D-Toledo, honorary co-chairmen of the proamendments Greater Ohio Committee, have minimized the OIC disclosure, claiming the amendment's "obvious intent" is to help only elderly homeowners.

Gray, Senate majority leader, denied an intentional effort had been made to conceal the "under 65" clause.

King, Senate minority leader and president of the Ohio AFL-CIO, a group strongly backing both issues, said the measure would be used to ease the tax burden on retired homeowners living on fixed incomes.

Other public figures, including U.S. senatorial candidates William B. Saxbe and John J. Gilligan, have announced support of No. 2 because of its potential aid to older Ohioans.

As in Issue No. 1 no organized opposition has developed to the homestead exemption.

Proponents have not said how the legislature would allow taxing authorities to recover revenue lost by any exemptions.

ANN LANDERS

Right Idea, Wrong Place

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I took my 3 and 5-year-olds shopping last Saturday when my sitter failed me at the last moment and I had no one with whom I could leave them.

The kids behaved like animals. They raced down the aisles, pulled merchandise off the racks and made a lot of noise. I decided to discipline them on the spot rather than wait till we got home. Youngsters have short memories, you know.

As soon as we were on the street I walloped them both and of course they yelled. A woman rushed over and shouted in my face, "Are you having fun beating those kids, Lady?" I told her to mind her own business. Then a man came up and informed me of a law against "child beating."

I was not beating my children, I was spanking them because they had it coming. Where do people get off making such remarks — and right in front of the kids? Comment, please. — A GOOD MOTHER WHO BELIEVES IN DISCIPLINE.

Dear Mother: You did the right thing —but you chose the wrong place. Children should not be spanked on the street. You should have waited until you got home and explained to them on the way what they were going to get and why.

Old Pro

Dear Ann: My wife has been ill for the last week and I've been trying to take over for her. Now I know why some women never get their housework done.

There are two secrets to keeping house:

1. Plan your work before you start and stick with each job until it is finished. The woman who leaves the kitchen half done to make the beds or place a telephone call will never make it.

2. Don't switch on TV. It will convert the iron in your blood to lead in the fanny. Twice I got hooked on TV — thinking I could walk away from it. The darn thing ate up my entire morning.

P.S.: Maybe I should tell you that 23 years in the Navy as a White Glove Inspector gave me an edge on most men. — RETIRED CPO.

Dear CPO: An edge, you say? You White Glove Guys are the best housekeepers in the world. Thanks for the P.S.

Clipping Time

Dear Ann: My 17th birthday is next month. Last night my dad told me I have to cut my hair by then or forego all privileges, including the car and 50 per cent of my allowance. He says long hair is a symbol of rebellion and he has let me rebel for 18 months and it's time I got it out of my system. My hair is down to my shoulder and falls in nice waves. I keep it clean and neatly trimmed. It's even and not scruffy looking. If I cut my hair I will have to set it every night. Please be on my side and say so in print. Thanks. — HAIR.

Dear Hair: Please tell me if you are a boy or a girl. The answer will influence my decision. If you're a boy, waves to the shoulders are too much. Settle for sideburns, let your ears show, and the back should not hide your shirt collar.

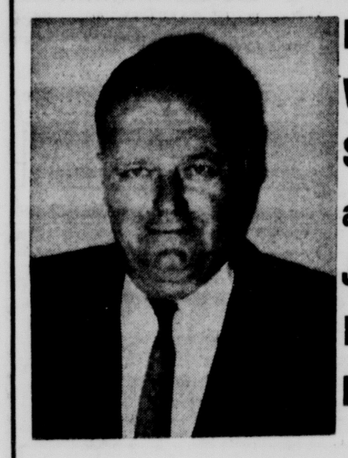

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Utah To Vote On Liquor By Drink Nov. 5

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — As far as some voters hereabouts are concerned, Vietnam is a secondary issue in next Tuesday's election. The big one is whether Utah should legalize the sale of hard liquor by the drink.

A proposal to this effect, which will be on the ballot, has brought boosters of the tourist trade into a direct confrontation with the Mormon Church. At the moment, the Church seems likely to prevail over commerce.

Under present law, only 3.2 beer may be sold by the drink. Strong spirits can be bought legally only by the bottle, at state liquor stores. It may then legally be consumed at home, in restaurants which provide setups, or in private clubs whose patrons are supposed to drink only what they bring with them.

A businessmen's group, contending that the law keeps tourists away in droves, circulated petitions for a referendum on change.

Devout Mormons do not use alcohol, or even coffee and tea. About two-thirds of Utah's 800,000 people are Mormons, and the Church came down hard on the proposal to ease the rules on booze.

Salt Lake City's two dailies took opposite sides, the Church-owned Evening Deseret News opposing any change and the Morning Salt Lake Tribune favoring it.

The proliquor forces claim the Church is spending freely to defeat them.

Said one of their leaders: "We can't match the $400,000 that's been raised to keep the law."

Social Security Program Is Set

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today announced the program for a seminar on Social Security laws which is scheduled Saturday, Nov. 9, at its headquarters on Route 7.

The union said all shop committee members and local union officers have been invited. No interested IBOP members will be barred, but the crowd will be limited by the size of the auditorium. The program will begin at 9 a.m . and is expected to continue throughout the day.

Many facets of the Social Security law will be explained. E. L. Wheatley, IBOP president, will open the program. The participants will include Robert V. Harris, manager of the East Liverpool district office; Rose Woodrum, manager of the Youngstown district office, and several of their aides, as well as Mrs. Ruth Rinehart, of the Ohio Valley Home Nursing Service.

Little Miami River Due As 'Scenic' Area

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Plans were announced Thursday to designate 82 miles of the Little Miami River in Southwestern Ohio as a "scenic river" to preserve the area and free it from further deterioration.

State Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr said he was taking the action on the recommendation of the Ohio Recreation and Resources Commission.

The designation will make the stretch of river eligible for federal funds for preservation and recreational development.

The section extends from Loveland, Clermont County, to north of Clifton, Clark County, including both the Little Miami and North Fork.

Services Set At Oak Ridge

The Rev. Roger Maze will be the guest speaker for the World Community Day services sponsored by the Church Women United of Wellsville Sunday night at 7:30 in the Oak Ridge United Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Maze, who is sponsored by the Nazarene church, is on furlough from four years service as a missionary in Brazil. His wife is the former Mary Ann McClain of Hammondsville.

Chairman for the service is Mrs. Velma Barker.

Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn, president, will conduct a brief business session. Music will be presented by the host church. Refreshments will be served in the dining room.

$225.9 Million Due Ohio For 1970 Roads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio will receive $225.9 million in federal highway construction funds for the 1970 fiscal year, the Department of Transportation announced Thursday.

That's a drop of $44.7 million from the $270.6 million received for the current fiscal year.

Or, as state highway department officials put it, the reduced allocation means Ohio, will be shorted "about 45 miles" of roadway in fiscal 1970. Officials figure that road construction costs average about $1 million a mile.

Of the $225.9 million allocated, $168.6 million will go for interstate highways.

Clark Rips GOP On Social Security

Schweiker Asks Revision Of U.S. Welfare System

By The Associated Press

Richard S. Schweiker, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate called for a "drastic revamping" of the American welfare system and his Democratic opponent, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, charged Republicans are trying to "disillusion" the elderly concerning Social Security.

In remarks prepared for a rally in Sharon today, Schweiker criticized the present welfare system for not moving its recipients upward on the economic ladder and for reaching only 8.5 million of the nation's 32.7 million poor.

Schweiker called for "a simple test of need" for qualification for welfare. He said families on welfare should retain earnings of $85 a month, plus 30 per cent of the remainder of their earnings before it is deducted from their welfare payment.

Another recommendation by Schweiker was the establishment of children's day care centers to allow welfare mothers to work. He also called for equal welfare benefits in all states.

The Montgomery County congressman said the welfare system, "actually encourages heads of families not to take paying jobs."

"When the system takes away a dollar of welfare for each dollar the family earns, so that the family stays on a hand-out instead of getting a hand-up, there is something wrong with the American welfare system," he said.

Democratic incumbent Clark campaigned in Erie today along with vice presidential candidate Edmund Muskie.

Clark said in a news release that Republican presidential candidate Richard Nixon is guilty of "gross misrepresentation" on the question of Social Security benefits.

Clark said the Republican hopeful contends that prices have climbed 10 per cent while old age benefits have remained the same over the past four years.

"That is utterly untrue," said Clark. "The fact is that Social Security benefits were raised 37½ per cent by the Social Security amendments of 1965 and 1967. And it should be pointed out that the opposition to these benefit increases came from Mr. Nixon's own party."

In Erie Clark told a rally to try a simple test. "Imagine yourself waking up in the morning," Clark said, "picking up the paper and reading, 'President Agnew said today ...' Blood-chilling, isn't it?"

Clark boosted Muskie as the "only one of the three vice presidential candidates who is equipped by training, by disposition, and by experience to govern the nation if the need should arise."

Israeli Stage Egypt Raid, Bomb 2 Spans

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli commandos, retaliating against recent Egyptian attacks, crossed the Suez Canal and penetrated 125 miles into Egypt Thursday night to bomb two Nile bridges and a power station, the Israeli army announced.

The daring raid came five days after 15 Israeli troops were killed and 34 wounded in a battle across the canal which U.N. observers reported was started by Egypt. Israel claimed that at one point Egyptian commandos crossed the canal and engaged the Israelis, and made vain attempts to cross at two other points.

The Egyptian army claimed that an Israeli plane had carried out the Nile raid and said one civilian was killed and two wounded. Israeli sources scoffed at the Egyptian explanation, saying President Gamal Abdel Nasser could not admit to his people that Israeli soldiers could make a raid so deep into Egypt.

In a comunique announcing the raid, the Israeli army said: "The action aims to make it clear that the Israeli army is able to retaliate against the Egyptian aggression."

Five Duquesne Students Rescue Man From River

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Five Duquesne University students dived into the swift current and cold waters of the Allegheny River Thursday night and rescued a Butler County man whose car had plunged into the river.

The boys got the car door open and pulled Alfred Brunner, 32, of Mars to shore. He was treated at Allegheny General Hospital for shock while the students received treatment at Mercy Hospital for exposure.

Police said Brunner was turning his car around on the Fort Pitt Boulevard underpass in downtown Pittsburgh about midnight when the accelerator apparently stuck, causing it to shoot into the river.

Bombing Halt Seen As Lift To Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic and Republican strategists agreed, at least privately, today that the decision to halt bombing of North Vietnam gave Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign a lift.

But few were willing to hazard a guess on whether the lift was enough—or in time—to put Humphrey over the top Tuesday against Republican Richard M. Nixon.

President Johnson's announcement of the bombing halt over nationwide television and radio Thursday night could serve as a sort of one-two punch, removing a major reason for antiwar voters refusing to tip the Democratic lever Tuesday or perhaps ignoring the election altogether.

President Johnson coupled his announcement that he is stopping the limited bombing with the cautious report that "progress has come" at long last in the Paris peace talks.

It was the judgment of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, that the bombing halt would help elect antiwar candidates for the House and Senate but might not be politically beneficial to the presidential nominee.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, applauded the President's action but said it would have little effect on Tuesday's voting, in which he is seeking re-election as an antiwar candidate.

Humphrey, of course, was as elated by the Johnson decision as Nixon seemingly was downcast.

All of the candidates, including Third Party hopeful George C. Wallace, were briefed by the President by telephone before the broadcast.

Humphrey said in Newark, N.J., that Johnson's action would "help the cause of peace."

Nixon, who had foreseen such a development and had implied that a "cynical" political move might be forthcoming, expressed the hope in New York that the bombing halt "may bring some progress" in the Paris talks.

Wallace said he "couldn't care less" what effect the bombing halt would have on the presidential race. His only concern, he said, was for an early and honorable settlement of the war so "we can bring the American servicemen home."

California offers the widest diversity of voting methods in the nation. Voters in 17 counties will record their choices on one of five computerized systems. Two counties and part of a third use lever-type voting machines.

2 Youths Jailed For Destruction

EAST PALESTINE — Two youths charged with breaking windows along Route 164 north of Lisbon Monday were fined $500 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail Thursday by County Judge Barry Dickson.

Robert L. Stryffler, 19, of Beloit RD 2 and Thomas A. Pyatt, 19, of Salem RD 4 were cited on a compaint filed by Mrs. Jack Palmer of Fairfield Township.

Andrea Del Sarto's famous painting, "Madonna of the Harpies," takes its name from the six figures, called harpies, which adorn the corners of the pedestal.

Clark Rips GOP On Social Security

Schweiker Asks Revision Of U.S. Welfare System

By The Associated Press

Richard S. Schweiker, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate called for a "drastic revamping" of the American welfare system and his Democratic opponent, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, charged Republicans are trying to "disillusion" the elderly concerning Social Security.

In remarks prepared for a rally in Sharon today, Schweiker criticized the present welfare system for not moving its recipients upward on the economic ladder and for reaching only 8.5 million of the nation's 32.7 million poor.

Schweiker called for "a simple test of need" for qualification for welfare. He said families on welfare should retain earnings of $85 a month, plus 30 per cent of the remainder of their earnings before it is deducted from their welfare payment.

Another recommendation by Schweiker was the establishment of children's day care centers to allow welfare mothers to work. He also called for equal welfare benefits in all states.

The Montgomery County congressman said the welfare system, "actually encourages heads of families not to take paying jobs."

"When the system takes away a dollar of welfare for each dollar the family earns, so that the family stays on a hand-out instead of getting a hand-up, there is something wrong with the American welfare system," he said.

Democratic incumbent Clark campaigned in Erie today along with vice presidential candidate Edmund Muskie.

Clark said in a news release that Republican presidential candidate Richard Nixon is guilty of "gross misrepresentation" on the question of Social Security benefits.

Clark said the Republican hopeful contends that prices have climbed 10 per cent while old age benefits have remained the same over the past four years.

"That is utterly untrue," said Clark. "The fact is that Social Security benefits were raised 37½ per cent by the Social Security amendments of 1965 and 1967. And it should be pointed out that the opposition to these benefit increases came from Mr. Nixon's own party."

In Erie Clark told a rally to try a simple test. "Imagine yourself waking up in the morning," Clark said, "picking up the paper and reading, 'President Agnew said today ...' Blood-chilling, isn't it?"

Clark boosted Muskie as the "only one of the three vice presidential candidates who is equipped by training, by disposition, and by experience to govern the nation if the need should arise."

Israeli Stage Egypt Raid, Bomb 2 Spans

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli commandos, retaliating against recent Egyptian attacks, crossed the Suez Canal and penetrated 125 miles into Egypt Thursday night to bomb two Nile bridges and a power station, the Israeli army announced.

The daring raid came five days after 15 Israeli troops were killed and 34 wounded in a battle across the canal which U.N. observers reported was started by Egypt. Israel claimed that at one point Egyptian commandos crossed the canal and engaged the Israelis, and made vain attempts to cross at two other points.

The Egyptian army claimed that an Israeli plane had carried out the Nile raid and said one civilian was killed and two wounded. Israeli sources scoffed at the Egyptian explanation, saying President Gamal Abdel Nasser could not admit to his people that Israeli soldiers could make a raid so deep into Egypt.

In a comunique announcing the raid, the Israeli army said: "The action aims to make it clear that the Israeli army is able to retaliate against the Egyptian aggression."

Bombing Halt Seen As Lift To Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic and Republican strategists agreed, at least privately, today that the decision to halt bombing of North Vietnam gave Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign a lift.

But few were willing to hazard a guess on whether the lift was enough—or in time—to put Humphrey over the top Tuesday against Republican Richard M. Nixon.

President Johnson's announcement of the bombing halt over nationwide television and radio Thursday night could serve as a sort of one-two punch, removing a major reason for antiwar voters refusing to tip the Democratic lever Tuesday or perhaps ignoring the election altogether.

President Johnson coupled his announcement that he is stopping the limited bombing with the cautious report that "progress has come" at long last in the Paris peace talks.

It was the judgment of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, that the bombing halt would help elect antiwar candidates for the House and Senate but might not be politically beneficial to the presidential nominee.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, applauded the President's action but said it would have little effect on Tuesday's voting, in which he is seeking re-election as an antiwar candidate.

Humphrey, of course, was as elated by the Johnson decision as Nixon seemingly was downcast.

All of the candidates, including Third Party hopeful George C. Wallace, were briefed by the President by telephone before the broadcast.

Humphrey said in Newark, N.J., that Johnson's action would "help the cause of peace."

Nixon, who had foreseen such a development and had implied that a "cynical" political move might be forthcoming, expressed the hope in New York that the bombing halt "may bring some progress" in the Paris talks.

Wallace said he "couldn't care less" what effect the bombing halt would have on the presidential race. His only concern, he said, was for an early and honorable settlement of the war so "we can bring the American servicemen home."

California offers the widest diversity of voting methods in the nation. Voters in 17 counties will record their choices on one of five computerized systems. Two counties and part of a third use lever-type voting machines.

Judge Penalizes Seven For Speed

Seven area motorists charged with speeding — one clocked at 90 miles an hour, according to police — were fined by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine Thursday.

Penalized were Gerald Justice of East Palestine, arrested for traveling 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile-an-hour zone, $50 and costs; Bonnie M. Shamp of Lisbon RD 2, $35 and costs; Samuel B. Thompson of East Liverpool RD 1 and Sandra Pedro of Negley, $20 and costs; Marjorie Derenberger of Lisbon RD 2 and Harry Clapsaddle of 2121 St. Clair Ave., $15 and costs, and Charles May of Lisbon RD 5, $10 and costs.

Also fined were John E. Adams of Lisbon RD 1, $15 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance; George McGinness of Negley, $10 and costs for driving left of center, and Jack W. Miller of 6th Ave., LaCroft, and Edward Slagle of Negley, $15 and costs for driving unsafe vehicles.

Judge Jails Man For Work Fraud

An East Palestine man who pleaded guilty to collecting unemployment funds while holding a job was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail by County Judge Barry Dickson Thursday at East Palestine.

Eugene Floyd Straley, 47, of State Line Rd., was charged by the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services with collecting money under a reciprocal agreement with Pennsylvania while serving as a partner in the Feezle Auto Wrecking Co. of Enon Valley, Pa.

The charge was based on one week's collection. However, the report indicated Straley had collected $1,231 in compensation in a 28-week period and had earned $4,616.

Five Duquesne Students Rescue Man From River

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Five Duquesne University students dived into the swift current and cold waters of the Allegheny River Thursday night and rescued a Butler County man whose car had plunged into the river.

The boys got the car door open and pulled Alfred Brunner, 32, of Mars to shore. He was treated at Allegheny General Hospital for shock while the students received treatment at Mercy Hospital for exposure.

Police said Brunner was turning his car around on the Fort Pitt Boulevard underpass in downtown Pittsburgh about midnight when the accelerator apparently stuck, causing it to shoot into the river.

Oak Glen At Weirton Put Off Until Tomorrow Afternoon

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Michigan State at Ohio State is of course the big college game in Ohio this weekend, but there will be some attention focused on Berea, where Baldwin-Wallace and Ohio Wesleyan collide for the Ohio Conference lead.

Both clubs are unbeaten, but Baldwin-Wallace has more impressive statistics. The Yellow Jackets lead the nation's small colleges in total offense, with 492.2 yards a game, are second in rush offense, with 312.6 yards a game and are fifth in scoring with 41.0 a game.

Ohio State has impressive credentials of its own to throw at the Michigan State Spartans. The Buckeyes are fourth among major colleges in total offense, with 451.4 yards a game, fourth in rushing, with 297 yards a game, and 12th in scoring, with 29.0 points a game.

Ohio U., the fourth unbeaten college team in the state, is eighth in total offense and third in scoring.

OTHER SCHOOLS ranked nationally include Cincinnati fourth and West Virginia eighth in passing, Miami second and Bowling Green eighth in total defense, Miami fourth and Penn State sixth in rushing defense, Kent State second and Bowling Green fifth in pass defense and Penn State third and Miami fifth in scoring defense.

Individually, Greg Cook of Cincinnati is second in total offense, Mike Sherwood of West Virginia fourth, Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. seventh, Dave Havern of Pitt ninth and Jerry Buckmaster of Xavier 15th. In passing, Sherwood is third, Cook fourth, Havern seventh, Steve Jones of Toledo 22nd and Buckmaster 23rd.

Roland Moss of Toledo is third in rushing, Ron (Po) James of New Brighton and New Mexico State fifth and Charles Pittman of Penn State 16th. Benny Rhoads of Cincinnati is fourth in punting, Martin Williams of Marshall 11th and Joe Spicko of Pitt 13th.

After a record-setting 11 catches last week Ohio U.'s Todd Snyder is 21st in pass receiving. Tom Rossley of Cincinnati is fourth, Oscar Patrick of West Virginia 12th, Dick Barnhorst of Xavier 13th and Skip Orzulak of Pitt 25th.

Jim O'Brien of Cincinnati is third in scoring, behind Eugene (Mercury) Morris of Avonworth and West Texas State and O. J. Simpson of Southern Cal, who are tied for first. Moss is fourth in scoring, Bob Houmard of Ohio U. tied for fifth, Kent Thompson of Miami and James tied for 10th and Bernie Kress of Dayton 24th. James, only a freshman, has kicked a field goal and five extra points as well as scored seven TDs.

Ken Crots of Toledo, who continues his record-breaking consecutive extra-point streak, is tied for second in scoring by kicking. Bill Pataki of Ohio U. is tied for 10th and O'Brien tied for 13th. Sam Antonazzo of Western Michigan is fourth in interception returns.

REY DEMPSEY, former East Palestine coach, has guided Canton Central to a 4-3 mark this season. Central's three losses were by only 11 points, including 7-6 to Canton McKinley and 8-6 to Canton Lehman.

Ray Bellisari, coach at Columbiana last season, has posted a 3-4-1 mark at Canton South to date. Don Ross, last year's Beaver Local coach, is on Bellisari's staff.

DON (BULLDOG) JACKSON, former Potter and Purdue grid standout, has guided his Rossford High School team to an 8-0 mark so far this season. Rossford also had clinched the Great Northern League title.

Midland Hosts Freedom Tonight

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The Bellaire St. John's at East Liverpool game tonight is only one of 12 contests in an area grid weekend that was kicked off at Crestview last night.

There are eight games tonight and three tomorrow, as the Oak Glen at Weirton game has been postponed from tonight until tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Midland is home tonight, Beaver Local is home tomorrow night and Wellsville is on the road tomorrow night.

Nearly every team in the area, from East Liverpool on down, is hurt by injuries to key personnel. Oak Glen has lost end Ron Cornell for the season with a broken wrist, but the Golden Bears would have been heavy underdogs at Weirton tonight in any case, despite improved play the last three outings. Alan Hoover's club is 0-8, and chances of success against a powerful Weirton outfit, ranked among the top five in the state, are slim.

The Red Riders are 7-1 and ranked second only to unbeaten Wintersville in OVAC AAA ranks. The lone loss was to Steubenville, 26-0, while wins were over Follansbee 7-6, Martins Ferry 19-7, Parkersburg South 14-6, John Marshall 33-20, Morgantown 34-6, Triadelphia 31-12 and Wheeling 7-2. The only common opponents were Follansbee and Triadelphia, which topped Oak Glen 27-0 and 6-0. Charles Basil is in his first year as coach at Weirton.

Midland closes its season by hosting Freedom. The Leopards, 4-4 so far in Ivan Dye's first year, will be hampered by injuries to George Green, Bernie Komara, George Hoyt and Ken Williams. Freedom is 3-5 after upsetting Quaker Valley 13-12 last week. Other wins came over Monaca 25-7 and Burgettstown 38-20, teams that Midland also beat, while losses were to Seneca Valley 6-0, New Brighton 13-7, Rochester 21-13, Upper St. Clair 7-2 and Beaver 47-0. Midland also lost to New Brighton, Rochester and Beaver. Tom Saunders coaches Freedom, and tackle Lou Idzojtic, 220, is the Bulldogs' top player.

TRI-COUNTY LEAGUE action finds Columbiana at Lisbon and Sebring at Leetonia. Both the Clippers and Blue Devils are improving, with Columbiana winning its last two for a 3-4 mark and Lisbon its last three for a 4-4 record. Randy Muntean's field goal kicking has brought the last two wins for Bud Bucher's Blue Devils, who hope to repeat their 8-7 upset of the Clippers a year ago. Both Lisbon and Columbiana are nearly full strength after being hit by injuries earlier.

Leetonia hopes to rebound from its 22-20 upset by Lisbon last week and keep its Tri-County hopes alive against Sebring, 4-4 and loser of its last three. The Bears have lost Brian Stewart due to a concussion, but the big trio of Ed Casey, Tim Trombitas and Ken DiCross is ready. Casey has completed 110 of 199 passes for 1,566 yards and 15 TDs, while Trombitas has caught 54 for 769 yards and 10 TDs and DiCross has rushed for 825 yards in 135 carries. Joe Bowers, Sebring quarterback, may miss the contest due to strep throat. Greg Wilson is the leading rusher for the Trojans.

East Palestine travels to Carrollton for a non-league game. Bill Offenbacker's Bulldogs are hampered by the loss of top rusher and scorer Joe Lewis and linebacker Dan Akenhead. Lewis, who has a sprained knee, its expected to return for the finale against Columbiana, while Akenhead has a broken hand. Bob Dickey, a sophomore, will fill in for Lewis. The Bulldogs are 7-1, losing only to Leetonia. Carrollton is 5-3, with losses to Poland, Sandy Valley and Minerva and wins over Columbiana, Cadiz, Claymont, Wellsville and Springfield (Jefferson). The Warriors won 20-12 last season.

PROBABLY NO TEAM is hurt more by injuries than Southern Local. Rich Rose, the area's top scorer, is out for the year with a broken leg, and Frank Francis, the Indians top lineman is doubtful due to a knee injury. The Indians, 5-3, host United, 2-6. Both teams lost to Beaver Local and Sebring, the only common foes.

Stanton, 4-3, hosts Jefferson Union, 6-2. The Yellowjackets, leading the Buckeye Border Conference, have lost only to unbeaten teams, Wintersville 15-2 and Brilliant 20-18. Mingo, Wellsville, Toronto, Springfield, Southern Local and Mt. Pleasant have been victims of Ted Maley's team. Stanton lost to Southern Local and Mt. Pleasant.

South Side Beaver, 3-4-1, needs a win to complete its best season in history, and should get it at winless Center. The Trojans, 0-8, have lost to Mars, Midland, Western Beaver, Quaker Valley, Monaca, Rochester, Seneca Valley and South Park. South Side lost to Western 19-6 last week. Larry Ashcroft of the Rams is sidelined with a broken collarbone and Ken Dunlevy is doubtful due to a leg injury. The game will be played at Monaca.

Tomorrow night, Western Beaver hosts Wellsville at Midland. Western is 2-6, Wellsville 1-7, and the teams have no common foes. John Petchel stars for Mike Hornick's Golden Beavers, while Howard Gilger's Tigers are led by the running of Lehman Pearson and John Weeda and the passing of John Stephens.

BEAVER LOCAL, still with a chance at the Buckeye Border Conference title, entertained defending champion Toronto in the home finale for the Beavers. The Red Knights have fallen on hard times this year, and after an opening win over Springfield 12-0 have lost seven straight, to Weirton Madonna 22-0, Wellsville 26-18, Wellsburg 28-8, Jefferson Union 24-6, Wintersville 74-0, Mingo 30-0 and Follansbee 43-0. Coach Ralph Anastasio has only one starter back from last year's 6-3 team, end J. R. Pope.

Dick Bryan has guided Beaver Local to a 4-4 mark so far. Defense has been the Beavers' specialty, sparked by Dave Doak, Scott Dubberly, Lew Brown and others. Jim Bowersock and Bruce Diddle are the top runners. The only common foe has been Springfield, which fell to the Beavers 26-0. End Bill Lucas, still recovering from burns in a home accident, is doubtful for Beaver Local.

The game to determine the champion of the Bill Booth football little league will be played Saturday night at 7:30 at Patterson Field.

Dixonville, National Division champ, and Glenmoor, the American Division champ, will meet for the title. Frank Hilliard coaches Dixonville and Martin Christen Glenmoor.

Trophies will be awarded to the participating teams and to Dixonville, the champions of the Pee Wee league. The program involved 309 boys and 70 girls this year.

The Vi-Lar Kadettes will perform at halftime of the game. Refreshments will be available. Admission is $.50 for adults and $.25 for children.

Ohio St. Perfect Mark Threatened Saturday Against Michigan State

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Perfection is the name of the game for only eight major college football teams . . . and that list is a cinch to be reduced by at least one this weekend.

Whether or not it's trimmed even more could depend on this season's upset allotments for a couple of upstarts—Michigan State and Colorado.

Michigan State, which pulled a 21-14 stunner over Notre Dame last week that vaulted it into the No. 17 spot in the rankings tries for another surprise Saturday at Ohio State. Its chances of succeeding are slim—the Buckeyes are unbeaten in five games and are battling Southern California for the national championship.

Colorado, meanwhile, fresh from a 41-27 upset of tough Oklahoma, also faces a difficult task in duplicating that—it tackles No. 3 Kansas, winner of six in a row thanks to the most potent scoring attack in the college ranks.

Southern Cal, 5-0, resumes activity after two weeks of idleness with a relatively easy match—against lowly Oregon, 3-3.

However, No. 4 Penn State faces a stern chore against stubborn Army in the Nittany Lions' bid for their sixth straight.

At least one of the eight unbeaten, untied teams will be eliminated since Harvard and Penn, both 5-0, are paired against each other. The two other outfits with perfect records are No. 19 Ohio University, 6-0, which meets Western Michigan, and Yale, 5-0, which faces Dartmouth.

There have only been 78 unbeaten teams in the last 30 years, and only two during the past two seasons—Wyoming last year and Alabama in 1966.

In other Top 10 action, No. 5 Tennessee, 4-0-1, plays host to UCLA; No. 6 Purdue, 5-1, entertains hapless Illinois; No. 7 Georgia, 5-0-1, faces a big showdown with No. 15 Houston; No. 8 California, 5-1, travels to Washington; No. 9 Michigan, 5-1, is at Northwestern, and No. 10 Missouri, 5-1, plays host to Oklahoma State.

In other games, 11th-ranked Texas, 4-1-1, has a showdown with No. 13 Southern Methodist; No. 12 Notre Dame goes against Navy at Philadelphia; No. 14 Louisiana State plays host to Mississippi at night; No. 17 Arkansas tests Texas A&M, No. 18 Florida State meet Virginia Tech at night, and No. 20 Florida plays Auburn.

Dayton PGA Threatened By Tourer-PGA Feud

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The conflict between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring pros may force cancellation of the 51st annual PGA championship tournament scheduled to be held here next Aug. 14-17.

The Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce threatened Thursday to cancel its contract with the PGA if it did not receive assurancess that top name golfers would participate in the tourney to be held at the NCR Country Club course.

The chamber has invited both the PGA and its rival, the American Professional Golfers, Inc., to send representatives to a meeting here Monday.

William P. Balthrop and Robert S. Oelman, co-chairmen of the chamber's sponsoring committee, said both groups have agreed to send representatives to the meeting.

The chamber said the meeting has been called to see if the two groups would cooperate enough to hold the tourney.

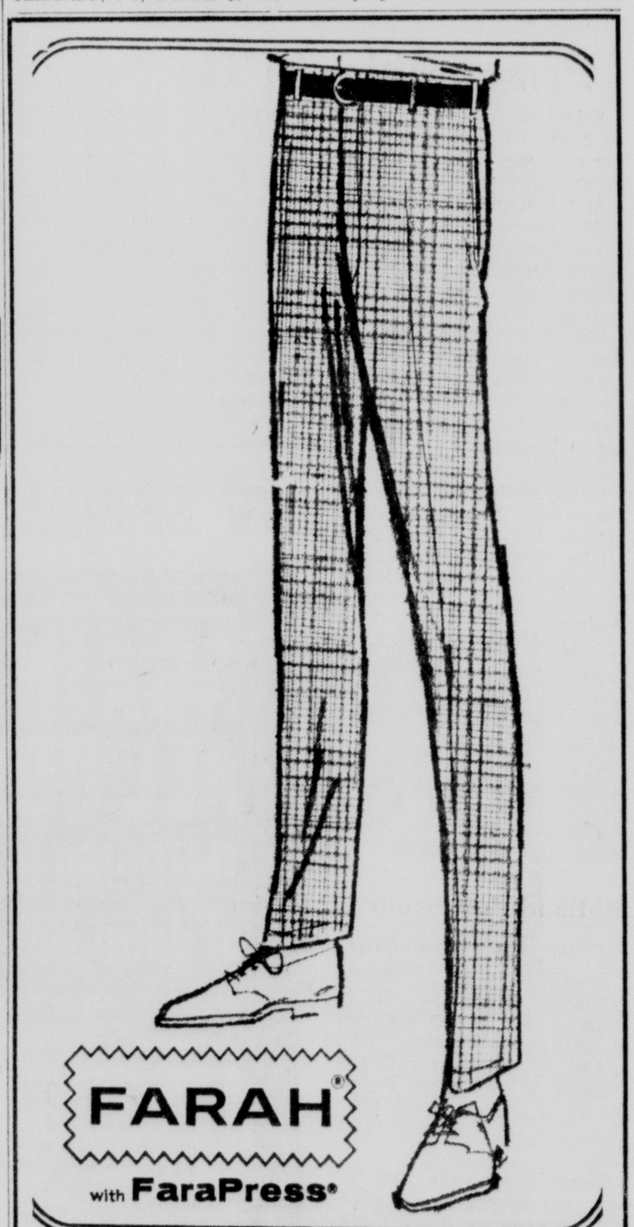

"Unless such a meeting is held and produces unequivocal assurances of full and unqualified participation and cooperation in the staging of said tournament by the APG and PGA," the chamber said, "we shall be obliged to cancel our tournament contract with the PGA."

The PGA is expected to be represented by Max Elbin, president; Leo Fraser, secretary; Warren Orlick, treasurer; and its attorney, William Rogers. Invited from the APG were Gardner Dickinson, president, and its attorneys Samuel Gates and Dennis Farrar.

Oak Glen At Weirton Put Off Until Tomorrow Afternoon

By TURK PIERCE

Michigan State at Ohio State is of course the big college game in Ohio this weekend, but there will be some attention focused on Berea, where Baldwin-Wallace and Onio Wesleyan collide for the Ohio Conference lead.

Both clubs are unbeaten, but Baldwin-Wallace has more impressive statistics. The Yellow Jackets lead the nation's small colleges in total offense, with 492.2 yards a game, are second in rush offense, with 312.6 yards a game and are fifth in scoring with 41.0 a game.

Ohio State has impressive credentials of its own to throw at the Michigan State Spartans. The Buckeyes are fourth among major colleges in total offense, with 451.4 yards a game, fourth in rushing, with 297 yards a game, and 12th in scoring, with 29.0 points a game.

Ohio U., the fourth unbeaten college team in the state, is eighth in total offense and third in scoring.

OTHER SCHOOLS ranked nationally include Cincinnati fourth and West Virginia eighth in passing, Miami second and Bowling Green eighth in total defense, Miami fourth and Penn State sixth in rushing defense, Kent State second and Bowling Green fifth in pass defense and Penn State third and Miami fifth in scoring defense.

Individually, Greg Cook of Cincinnati is second in total offense, Mike Sherwood of West Virginia fourth, Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. seventh, Dave Havern of Pitt ninth and Jerry Buckmaster of Xavier 15th. In passing, Sherwood is third, Cook fourth, Havern seventh, Steve Jones of Toledo 22nd and Buckmaster 23rd.

Roland Moss of Toledo is third in rushing, Ron (Po) James of New Brighton and New Mexico State fifth and Charles Pittman of Penn State 16th. Benny Rhoads of Cincinnati is fourth in punting, Martin Williams of Marshall 11th and Joe Spicko of Pitt 13th.

After a record-setting 11 catches last week Ohio U.'s Todd Snyder is 21st in pass receiving. Tom Rossley of Cincinnati is fourth, Oscar Patrick of West Virginia 12th, Dick Barnhorst of Xavier 13th and Skip Orzulak of Pitt 25th.

Jim O'Brien of Cincinnati is third in scoring, behind Eugene (Mercury) Morris of Avonworth and West Texas State and O. J. Simpson of Southern Cal, who are tied for first. Moss is fourth in scoring, Bob Houmard of Ohio U. tied for fifth, Kent Thompson of Miami and James tied for 10th and Bernie Kress of Dayton 24th. James, only a freshman, has kicked a field goal and five extra points as well as scored seven TDs.

Ken Crots of Toledo, who continues his record-breaking consecutive extra-point streak, is tied for second in scoring by kicking. Bill Pataki of Ohio U. is tied for 10th and O'Brien tied for 13th. Sam Antonazzo of Western Michigan is fourth in interception returns.

REY DEMPSEY, former East Palestine coach, has guided Canton Central to a 4-3 mark this season. Central's three losses were by only 11 points, including 7-6 to Canton McKinley and 8-6 to Canton Lehman.

Ray Bellisari, coach at Columbiana last season, has posted a 3-4-1 mark at Canton South to date. Don Ross, last year's Beaver Local coach, is on Bellisari's staff.

DON (BULLDOG) JACKSON, former Potter and Purdue grid standout, has guided his Rossford High School team to an 8-0 mark so far this season. Rossford also had clinched the Great Northern League title.

Midland Hosts Freedom Tonight

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The Bellaire St. John's at East Liverpool game tonight is only one of 12 contests in an area grid weekend that was kicked off at Crestview last night.

There are eight games tonight and three tomorrow, as the Oak Glen at Weirton game has been postponed from tonight until tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Midland is home tonight, Beaver Local is home tomorrow night and Wellsville is on the road tomorrow night.

Nearly every team in the area, from East Liverpool on down, is hurt by injuries to key personnel. Oak Glen has lost end Ron Cornell for the season with a broken wrist, but the Golden Bears would have been heavy underdogs at Weirton tonight in any case, despite improved play the last three outings. Alan Hoover's club is 0-8, and chances of success against a powerful Weirton outfit, ranked among the top five in the state, are slim.

The Red Riders are 7-1 and ranked second only to unbeaten Wintersville in OVAC AAA ranks. The lone loss was to Steubenville, 26-0, while wins were over Follansbee 7-6, Martins Ferry 19-7, Parkersburg South 14-6, John Marshall 33-20, Morgantown 34-6, Triadelphia 31-12 and Wheeling 7-2. The only common opponents were Follansbee and Triadelphia, which topped Oak Glen 27-0 and 6-0. Charles Basil is in his first year as coach at Weirton.

Midland closes its season by hosting Freedom. The Leopards, 4-4 so far in Ivan Dye's first year, will be hampered by injuries to George Green, Bernie Komara, George Hoyt and Ken Williams. Freedom is 3-5 after upsetting Quaker Valley 13-12 last week. Other wins came over Monaca 25-7 and Burgettstown 38-20, teams that Midland also beat, while losses were to Seneca Valley 6-0, New Brighton 13-7, Rochester 21-13, Upper St. Clair 7-2 and Beaver 47-0. Midland also lost to New Brighton, Rochester and Beaver. Tom Saunders coaches Freedom, and tackle Lou Idzojtic, 220, is the Bulldogs' top player.

TRI-COUNTY LEAGUE action finds Columbiana at Lisbon and Sebring at Leetonia. Both the Clippers and Blue Devils are improving, with Columbiana winning its last two for a 3-4 mark and Lisbon its last three for a 4-4 record. Randy Muntean's field goal kicking has brought the last two wins for Bud Bucher's Blue Devils, who hope to repeat their 8-7 upset of the Clippers a year ago. Both Lisbon and Columbiana are nearly full strength after being hit by injuries earlier.

Leetonia hopes to rebound from its 22-20 upset by Lisbon last week and keep its Tri-County hopes alive against Sebring, 4-4 and loser of its last three. The Bears have lost Brian Stewart due to a concussion, but the big trio of Ed Casey, Tim Trombitas and Ken DiCross is ready. Casey has completed 110 of 199 passes for 1,566 yards and 15 TDs, while Trombitas has caught 54 for 769 yards and 10 TDs and DiCross has rushed for 825 yards in 135 carries. Joe Bowers, Sebring quarterback, may miss the contest due to strep throat. Greg Wilson is the leading rusher for the Trojans.

East Palestine travels to Carrollton for a non-league game. Bill Offenbacker's Bulldogs are hampered by the loss of top rusher and scorer Joe Lewis and linebacker Dan Akenhead. Lewis, who has a sprained knee, its expected to return for the finale against Columbiana, while Akenhead has a broken hand. Bob Dickey, a sophomore, will fill in for Lewis. The Bulldogs are 7-1, losing only to Leetonia. Carrollton is 5-3, with losses to Poland, Sandy Valley and Minerva and wins over Columbiana, Cadiz, Claymont, Wellsville and Springfield (Jefferson). The Warriors won 20-12 last season.

PROBABLY NO TEAM is hurt more by injuries than Southern Local. Rich Rose, the area's top scorer, is out for the year with a broken leg, and Frank Francis, the Indians top lineman is doubtful due to a knee injury. The Indians, 5-3, host United, 2-6. Both teams lost to Beaver Local and Sebring, the only common foes.

Stanton, 4-3, hosts Jefferson Union, 6-2. The Yellowjackets, leading the Buckeye Border Conference, have lost only to unbeaten teams, Wintersville 15-2 and Brilliant 20-18. Mingo, Wellsville, Toronto, Springfield, Southern Local and Mt. Pleasant have been victims of Ted Maley's team. Stanton lost to Southern Local and Mt. Pleasant.

South Side Beaver, 3-4-1, needs a win to complete its best season in history, and should get it at winless Center. The Trojans, 0-8, have lost to Mars, Midland, Western Beaver, Quaker Valley, Monaca, Rochester, Seneca Valley and South Park. South Side lost to Western 19-6 last week. Larry Ashcroft of the Rams is sidelined with a broken collarbone and Ken Dunlevy is doubtful due to a leg injury. The game will be played at Monaca.

Tomorrow night, Western Beaver hosts Wellsville at Midland. Western is 2-6, Wellsville 1-7, and the teams have no common foes. John Petchel stars for Mike Hornick's Golden Beavers, while Howard Gilger's Tigers are led by the running of Lehman Pearson and John Weeda and the passing of John Stephens.

BEAVER LOCAL, still with a chance at the Buckeye Border Conference title, entertained defending champion Toronto in the home finale for the Beavers. The Red Knights have fallen on hard times this year, and after an opening win over Springfield 12-0 have lost seven straight, to Weirton Madonna 22-0, Wellsville 26-18, Wellsburg 28-8, Jefferson Union 24-6, Wintersville 74-0, Mingo 30-0 and Follansbee 43-0. Coach Ralph Anastasio has only one starter back from last year's 6-3 team, end J. R. Pope.

Dick Bryan has guided Beaver Local to a 4-4 mark so far. Defense has been the Beavers' specialty, sparked by Dave Doak, Scott Dubberly, Lew Brown and others. Jim Bowersock and Bruce Diddle are the top runners. The only common foe has been Springfield, which fell to the Beavers 26-0. End Bill Lucas, still recovering from burns in a home accident, is doubtful for Beaver Local.

Dayton PGA Threatened By Tourer-PGA Feud

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The conflict between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring pros may force cancellation of the 51st annual PGA championship tournament scheduled to be held here next Aug. 14-17.

The Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce threatened Thursday to cancel its contract with the PGA if it did not receive assurancess that top name golfers would participate in the tourney to be held at the NCR Country Club course.

Steelers Favored Again; 49ers Pick Over Browns

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Will the Rams and Cowboys bounce back strong from their first defeats? Can Green Bay reach back for another super game after their sparkler in Dallas Monday night? Can Philadelphia beat anybody? Will the Colts teach the Giants not to mess around with the big boys?

After last week's 9-4 the old Hand picker is 50-26-2 for the season. Let's give it another whirl. All games are Sunday.

NFL

Los Angeles 24, Detroit 14—Our guess is that Rams will react strong to the Baltimore disaster with a big effort before home folks. Much depends on Mel Farr's ankle which was reinjured in loss to 49ers.

Pittsburgh 17, Atlanta 10 — Steelers still have Dick Hoak to run against weakest defense in league.

St. Louis 27, Philadelphia 13 —Cards have won three in a row and Eagles have dropped all seven. Willis Crenshaw should crunch that Eagle line.

Minnesota 30, Washington 10 —Vikings still in race, although shaken by loss to Bears. Bill Brown and Clint Jones should have big day against Redskins' left side.

Baltimore 24, New York 20—This could be closer than you think. Earl Morrall has been hot as backup man for John Unitas and would like to show Allie Sheman he made a boo-boo. Colt defense will pressure Fran Tarkenton and you may see scrambling like you never saw before.

Green Bay 28, Chicago 23—Remember, Packers played Monday night, a real big game in Dallas. Bears still think they can win it all with hottest place kicker in business, Mac Percival, and best runner in football, Gale Sayers. Defense and Bart Starr give Packers edge in a tough one. Bears won in August 10-7.

San Francisco 20, Cleveland 17—Each has won two in a row and Browns took exhibition game in August 31-17. Running of Ken Willard and Gary Lewis hits Browns where they're weakest. Leroy Kelly on a 100-yard binge and Ernie Green is back to help him now Bill Nelson on hot streak but so is John Brodie. Home field edge to 49ers.

Dallas 28, New Orleans 13 — That Cowboy pass defense, however, should feast on interception-prone Billy Kolmer.

AFL

New York 35, Buffalo 14 — Should be a romp for Jets if Joe Namath is all right and he says he is. But it was to have been easy last time when Bills picked off five passes and won 37-35.

Denver 21, Boston 20—Floyd Little finally came into his own as pro with 126 yards against Miami. Marlin Briscoe or Steve Tensi rates edge over Mike Taliaferro although Patsare favored at home on strong defense and kicking of Gino Cappelletti. Boston won 20-17 at Denver Sept. 29.

Houston 17, Cincinnati 13 — Defense should do the job for Oilers who figure to take advantage of leaky pass curtain of Bengals, who have lost five straight.

Kansas City 23, Oakland 21—This is rematch of the tight-T party Hank Stram threw for Raiders at Kansas City two weeks ago. Oakland adjusted to the formation in second half but it was too late. Stram probably will have some new surprises for defending champs who must win this one. Oakland favorite despite Chiefs' six-game winning streak.

San Diego 31, Miami 17—Bob Griese and rookie running backs pose threat for Chargers' defense but John Hadl should be able to pick holes in Dolphins.

DENNY McLAIN

McLain AL Cy Young Winner

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny McLain, Detroit's 31-game winner, was unanimously selected today the American League's Cy Young Award winner for 1968.

McLain, 24, was the choice on all 20 ballots—two from each league city—in the annual Baseball Writer's Association of America vote.

McLain, who succeeds Boston's Jim Lonborg as the AL's Young winner, beat every team in the league at least twice and became the first 30-game winner in the major leagues in 34 years. Dizzy Dean, who won 30 for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was the last man to reach that plateau.

The ballots were sent in before the World Series and did not consider Series performances. McLain lost his first two Series starts but won the vital sixth game, tying the classic against the Cardinals at three games apiece. Mickey Lolich, who won three Series games, beat St. Louis as Detroit took the title in the seventh game.

McLain made 41 starts and pitched 28 complete games. He was 17-2 on the road and 14-4 at home. He struck out 280 walked 63 and pitched six shutouts. He had a 1.96 earned run average, fourth best in the league.

Ohio U. Can Clinch Tangerine Bowl Trip

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State bids to retain its first place position in the Big Ten and Ohio University shoots for at least a tie for the Mid - American Conference championship Saturday.

The Buckeyes, 5-0 on the season and tied with Michigan for the conference lead on a 3-0 mark, battle rugged Michigan State at Ohio Stadium.

The Spartans are fresh from an upset victory over Notre Dame while Ohio escaped with a narrow 31-24 triumph over Illinois last week.

Ohio U., 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the MAC, journeys to Kalamazoo for a joust with Western Michigan. A victory would seal the Tangerine Bowl trip for the 19th ranked bobcats and give Coach Bill Hess his fourth title in 11 seasons.

There are other headliners on the Ohio collegiate grid program. Miami (1-2) visits Toledo (1-1-1); Bowling Green (4-1-1) entertains Marshall; Cincinnati (3-2-1) travels to North Texas State; Kent State (0-7) plays at Louisville; Dayton (3-3) collides with archrival Xavier (3-3) in Cincinnati under the lights and Ohio Wesleyan (5-0) invades Baldwin-Wallace (6-0) in a game that could decide the Ohio Conference championship.

Toledo's 24-14 victory over Miami last year was its first over the Redskins since 1937. The duel matches Miami's rugged defense against the Rockets' high-scoring offense with the winner clinging to some hope for a MAC title should Ohio U. stumble.

Bowling Green, also nursing fading championship aspiration catches winless Marshall which now has the dubious distinction of holding the nation's longest winless streak—18.

The Falcons are battered and may be without quarterback P. J. Nyitray, who has a shoulder injury.

Cincinnati, with quarterback Greg Cook at the throttle, angles wih North Texas in a Missouri Valley skirmish. Cook is No. 2 his week in total offense.

Kent is given a good chance to finally claim that elusive first victory but the Cardinals won't be easy on Kentucky soil.

Dayton and Xavier, both coming off losses, are trying to keep their heads over the .100 mark.

Defending champion Ohio Weleyan must check Baldwin-Wallace's strong attack as the co-leaders in the OC tangle. Both are 3-0.

Hiram at Wooster; Kenyon at Oberlin; Muskingum at Denison; Heidelberg at Otterbein; Marietta at Mount Union; Illinois State at Akron; Bluffton at Ohio Northern; Capital at Ashland; Valparaiso at Wittenberg; Centre at Wimington; Findlay at Austin Peay; Central State of Defiance; Youngstown at Southern Illinois; Case at Allegheny; Bethany at John Carroll; Thiel at Adelbert.

Chubin's 40 Not Enough, Stars Lose

By The Associated Press

Rick Barry, star of the Oakland Oaks in the American Basketball Association, is noted more for his shooting than his passing.

He threw in 29 points in leading the Oaks to a 143-127 victory over the Los Angeles Stars Thursday night but, actually, he passed off more than he shot. This more than offset the 40 points Steve Chubin scored for the Stars.

The victory moved the Oaks back into first place in the Western Division, half a game ahead of New Orleans. It was the Oaks' first triumph at home but only 1,623 turned out.

The Stars stayed close in the first half, but the Oaks broke a 56-56 tie to lead 79-63 at halftime and stayed in front.

Houston beat Dallas 108-90 and Indiana took Denver 122-100 in the other two ABA games scheduled.

Willie Somerset's 23 points led Houston while John Beasley was high for Dallas with 19. Roger Brown paced Indiana with 25. Billy McGill's 26 for Denver was high for the game.

The USGA has set the 1969 amateur public links golf championship for July 9-12 at the Downing Golf Course in Erie, Pa.

Kentucky Out To Stop Sherwood's Passing

By ED TUNSTALL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) —Kentucky tries its hand Saturday at muzzling the shotgun passing of West Vrginia's Mike Sherwood in a game that's a big one for both football teams.

The Mountaineers, gunning for their fifth victory against two losses, will be spurred by a sellout homecoming crowd.

Kentucky's Wildcats have won but two of their six games but they tangled with some rough competition against the likes of Georgia, Louisiana State, Mississippi and Missouri.

And Coach Charlie Bradshaw's announced resignation earlier this week—effective at the season's close—may give the visitors a lift in an effort to give him some triumphs before he departs.

Kentucky will have to stop Sherwood's passing if it is to win. The 18-year-old sophomore from Bellaire, Ohio, ranks among the nation's top three tossers and he has not really had a bad game passing yet.

Sherwood has broken a bushel of Mountaineer records. He passed Allen McCune's season passing mark last week against VPI and now shows 1,483 on 112 completions in 194 attempts—a 58.8 completion percentage—and eight touchdowns.

The Wildcats will have to devote a lot of attenton to Mountaineer split end Oscar Patrick, who has been Sherwood's favorite target. Patrick has grabbed 37 passes for 606 yards and four touchdowns.

But Mountaineer Coach Jim Carlen isn't selling Kentucky short.

"It' an explosive team and can go all the way at any tme," the West Virginia head man said. Carlen indicated he has a lot of respect for Wildcat tailback Dicky Lyons.

Lyons leads the Wildcats in rushing, punt returns and kickoff returns. He's particularly dangerous on kickoff returns and rates as one of the nation's best with a 20.4-yard average on 19 takebacks.

The Kentucky passing game isn't anywhere near the Mountaineer overhead attack, particularly with No. 1 quarterback Stan Forston out after an appendix operation. But sub Dave Bair has chalked up 220 yards on 11 of 32 and a pair of touchdowns.

Bradshaw terms the Mountaineers "the best West Virginia team we've seen . . . very exciting and can gain long yardage in a few plays.

"That Sherwood is something else," the Kentucky coach said. "He has such a fine, effortless delivery that he can stand out there and throw all day and his passes are easy to catch."

Both teams have key men out with injuries but the crowd of near 35,000 expected for the 1:30 p.m. kickoff can expect the usual rugged, intermountain battle. West Virginia hasn't beaten Kentucky since 1964 and the Wildcats lead eight games to four with one tie in a series that started in 1905.

Mel Knowlton Will Step Down At Alliance

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Mel Knowlton,, head football coach and athletic director of Alliance High School since 1946, said yesterday that he would give up his coaching duties after the 1969 season. He did not say whether or not he would continue as athletic director.

Knowlton was voted Ohio high school coach of the year in 1958.

Junior High Games In Hancock Canceled

Two junior high football games in Hancock County were cancelled yesterday.

New Cumberland was scheduled at Chester and Wells was scheduled at Weirton Madonna. Lack of transportaton due to the walkout of non-certificated personnel was one of the reasons for the cancellations.

Ernie Green Sidelined By Knee Hurt

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns fullback Ernie Green, who missed the first five games because of a knee injury, is not expected to start against the San Francisco 49ers Sunday.

Green's return to duty Oct. 20 was credited with sparking the Browns to an upset victory over the Baltimore Colts.

He hurt the knee again last Sunday in the victory over the Atlanta Falcons but was running again on Tuesday and appeared to be recovered.

Then on Wednesday he reinjured the knee when he fell while blocking during practice. Green missed Thursday's practice and is not expected to be ready Sunday in San Francisco.

If Green doesn't play, Charley Leigh probably will start at fullback, Leigh, a rookie, has been hampered by a sprained ankle and pulled tendon for several weeks but appeared to be running well this week.

Defensive end Bill Glass, who was taken out of the Atlanta game because of tender ribs, will be back.

Glass noted that the 49ers should have plenty of information on the Browns. In addition to former Cleveland receiver Clif McNeil, the 49ers have two Browns on their coaching staff—Paul Wiggin and Jim Shofner.

Glass called Wiggin and Shofner "two of the most intelligent players we have had with the Browns."

Johnson's 1,295 Pins Lead PBA Tourney

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Harry Johnson of Los Angeles rolled a six-game block of 1,295 Thursday and moved into first place going into the finals of the Professional Bowlers Association $30,000 Green Bay Open.

Johnson had 5,229 total pinfall, moving ahead of Skee Foremsky, El Paso, Tex., who led after 18 games. Foremsky scored 5,211 for 24 games.

Milwaukee Wins First NBA Game

By The Associated Press

If at first you don't succeed, try, try, try, try, try again—it worked for the Milwaukee Bucks.

The National Basketball Association's expansion outfit, losers of its first five games, finally turned the trick by beating the Detroit Pistons 134-118 Thursday night.

Meanwhile, Phoenix climbed into a tie with Los Angeles for the lead in the Western Division by turning back Chicago 112-103 in the night's only other game.

Wayne Embry guided Milwaukee to its first victory by whipping in 30 points. Embry and Jon McGlocklin teamed in the first period to help the Bucks to a 27-23 advantage. Then, Embry and Guy Rodgers sparked a second period surge that lifted the Bucks to a 64-44 control at halftime.

The Pistons' Dave Bing, top NBA shooter last season, was held to only five points during the first half, but came on strong after intermission to finish with 29.

Again Gail Goodrich was the star for surprising Phoenix, drilling in 30 points—the third time he has reached that plateau this season.

Goodrich tallied 16 points in an 11-minute span in the first half as the Suns led at intermission 62-44. Bob Boozer topped the Bulls with 23 points.

Fight Results

LOS ANGELES — Hedmon Lewis, 146, Los Angeles, knocked out Celso Olivas, 145, Culiacan, Sonora, Mexico, 1; Scotter Mexa, 136, Fresno, Calif., stopped Ulysses utero, 136, Tijuana, Mexico, 7.

Miller Barber, Archer Lead Lucky Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Miller Barber of Sherman, Tex., and George Archer of Gilroy, Calif., shaved five strokes off par to share the first day lead in the $100,000 Lucky International Golf Tournament with 66s.

They led 42 other players who also broke par into the second round today, after which the field will be cut to the top 70 and ties.

Bunched a stroke back of the leaders in the bid for $20,000 top prize were Frank Boynton of Cleveland, Dave Stockton of San Bernardino, Calif., Jack Fleck of Mission Viejo, Calif., and Doug Sanders of Cedarton, Ga.

Billy Casper, who has won $183,389 this year and is bidding to join Jack Nicklaus as the only $200,000-a-year men in golf, was in a group of eight tied at 68.

Westgate Wins First, Drops East

Westgate Junior High won its first game of the season yesterday, surprising East Junior 20-0 at Patterson Field.

Mike Headley got the first tally on a 14-yard run, Dave Kyle connected with Jim Tipton on a 75-yard pass play and Ron Volino scored on a 15-yard run. Volino also scored the extra points.

Rick Lockhart was the leading rusher and set up Volino's score with a 60-yard run. Tackle Jim Cheeks and end Eugene Arcuragi were outstanding on defense.

Bears still think they can win it all with hottest place kicker in business, Mac Percival, and best runner in football, Gale Sayers. Defense and Bart Starr give Packers edge in a tough one. Bears won in August 10-7.

San Francisco 20, Cleveland 17—Each has won two in a row and Browns took exhibition game in August 31-17. Running of Ken Willard and Gary Lewis hits Browns where they're weakest. Leroy Kelly on a 100-yard binge and Ernie Green is back to help him now Bill Nelson on hot streak but so is John Brodie. Home field edge to 49ers.

Dallas 28, New Orleans 13 — That Cowboy pass defense, however, should feast on interception-prone Billy Kolmer.

AFL

New York 35, Buffalo 14 — Should be a romp for Jets if Joe Namath is all right and he says he is. But it was to have been easy last time when Bills picked off five passes and won 37-35.

Denver 21, Boston 20—Floyd Little finally came into his own as pro with 126 yards against Miami. Marlin Briscoe or Steve Tensi rates edge over Mike Taliaferro although Patsare favored at home on strong defense and kicking of Gino Cappelletti. Boston won 20-17 at Denver Sept. 29.

Houston 17, Cincinnati 13 — Defense should do the job for Oilers who figure to take advantage of leaky pass curtain of Bengals, who have lost five straight.

Kansas City 23, Oakland 21—This is rematch of the tight-T party Hank Stram threw for Raiders at Kansas City two weeks ago. Oakland adjusted to the formation in second half but it was too late. Stram probably will have some new surprises for defending champs who must win this one. Oakland favorite despite Chiefs' six-game winning streak.

San Diego 31, Miami 17—Bob Griese and rookie running backs pose threat for Chargers' defense but John Hadl should be able to pick holes in Dolphins.

DENNY McLAIN

McLain AL Cy Young Winner

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny McLain, Detroit's 31-game winner, was unanimously selected today the American League's Cy Young Award winner for 1968.

McLain, 24, was the choice on all 20 ballots—two from each league city—in the annual Baseball Writer's Association of America vote.

McLain, who succeeds Boston's Jim Lonborg as the AL's Young winner, beat every team in the league at least twice and became the first 30-game winner in the major leagues in 34 years. Dizzy Dean, who won 30 for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was the last man to reach that plateau.

The ballots were sent in before the World Series and did not consider Series performances. McLain lost his first two Series starts but won the vital sixth game, tying the classic against the Cardinals at three games apiece. Mickey Lolich, who won three Series games, beat St. Louis as Detroit took the title in the seventh game.

McLain made 41 starts and pitched 28 complete games. He was 17-2 on the road and 14-4 at home. He struck out 280 walked 63 and pitched six shutouts. He had a 1.96 earned run average, fourth best in the league.

Ernie Green Sidelined By Knee Hurt

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns fullback Ernie Green, who missed the first five games because of a knee injury, is not expected to start against the San Francisco 49ers Sunday.

Green's return to duty Oct. 20 was credited with sparking the Browns to an upset victory over the Baltimore Colts.

He hurt the knee again last Sunday in the victory over the Atlanta Falcons but was running again on Tuesday and appeared to be recovered.

Then on Wednesday he reinjured the knee when he fell while blocking during practice. Green missed Thursday's practice and is not expected to be ready Sunday in San Francisco.

If Green doesn't play, Charley Leigh probably will start at fullback. Leigh, a rookie, has been hampered by a sprained ankle and pulled tendon for several weeks but appeared to be running well this week.

Defensive end Bill Glass, who was taken out of the Atlanta game because of tender ribs, will be back.

Glass noted that the 49ers should have plenty of information on the Browns. In addition to former Cleveland receiver Clif McNeil, the 49ers have two Browns on their coaching staff—Paul Wiggin and Jim Shofner.

Glass called Wiggin and Shofner "two of the most intelligent players we have had with the Browns."

Johnson's 1,295 Pins Lead PBA Tourney

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Harry Johnson of Los Angeles rolled a six-game block of 1,295 Thursday and moved into first place going into the finals of the Professional Bowlers Association $30,000 Green Bay Open.

Johnson had 5,229 total pinfall, moving ahead of Skee Foremsky, El Paso, Tex., who led after 18 games. Foremsky scored 5,211 for 24 games.

Ohio U. Can Clinch Tangerine Bowl Trip

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State bids to retain its first place position in the Big Ten and Ohio University shoots for at least a tie for the Mid-American Conference championship Saturday.

The Buckeyes, 5-0 on the season and tied with Michigan for the conference lead on a 3-0 mark, battle rugged Michigan State at Ohio Stadium.

The Spartans are fresh from an upset victory over Notre Dame while Ohio escaped with a narrow 31-24 triumph over Illinois last week.

Ohio U., 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the MAC, journeys to Kalamazoo for a joust with Western Michigan. A victory would seal the Tangerine Bowl trip for the 19th ranked bobcats and give Coach Bill Hess his fourth title in 11 seasons.

There are other headliners on the Ohio collegiate grid program. Miami (1-2) visits Toledo (1-1-1); Bowling Green (4-1-1) entertains Marshall; Cincinnati (3-2-1) travels to North Texas State; Kent State (0-7) plays at Louisville; Dayton (3-3) collides with archrival Xavier (3-3) in Cincinnati under the lights and Ohio Wesleyan (5-0) invades Baldwin-Wallace (6-0) in a game that could decide the Ohio Conference championship.

Toledo's 24-14 victory over Miami last year was its first over the Redskins since 1937. The duel matches Miami's rugged defense against the Rockets' high-scoring offense with the winner clinging to some hope for a MAC title should Ohio U. stumble.

Bowling Green, also nursing fading championship aspiration catches winless Marshall which now has the dubious distinction of holding the nation's longest winless streak—18.

The Falcons are battered and may be without quarterback P. J. Nyitray, who has a shoulder injury.

Cincinnati, with quarterback Greg Cook at the throttle, angles wih Norh Texas in a Missouri Valley skirmish. Cook is No. 2 his week in total offense.

Kent is given a good chance to finally claim that elusive first victory but the Cardinals won't be easy on Kentucky soil.

Dayton and Xavier, both coming off losses, are trying to keep their heads over the .100 mark.

Defending champion Ohio Weleyan must check Baldwin-Wallace's strong attack as the coleaders in the OC tangle. Both are 3-0.

Hiram at Wooster; Kenyon at Oberlin; Muskingum at Denison; Heidelberg at Otterbein; Marietta at Mount Union; Illinois State at Akron; Bluffton at Ohio Northern; Capital at Ashland; Valparaiso at Wittenberg; Centre at Wimington; Findlay at Austin Peay; Central State of Defiance; Youngstown at Southern Illinois; Case at Allegheny; Bethany at John Carroll; Thiel at Adelbert.

Milwaukee Wins First NBA Game

By The Associated Press

If at first you don't succeed, try, try, try, try, try again—it worked for the Milwaukee Bucks.

The National Basketball Association's expansion outfit, losers of its first five games, finally turned the trick by beating the Detroit Pistons 134-118 Thursday night.

Meanwhile, Phoenix climbed into a tie with Los Angeles for the lead in the Western Division by turning back Chicago 112-103 in the night's only other game.

Wayne Embry guided Milwaukee to its first victory by whipping in 30 points. Embry and Jon McGlocklin teamed in the first period to help the Bucks to a 27-23 advantage. Then, Embry and Guy Rodgers sparked a second period surge that lifted the Bucks to a 64-44 control at halftime.

The Pistons' Dave Bing, top NBA shooter last season, was held to only five points during the first half, but came on strong after intermission to finish with 29.

Again Gail Goodrich was the star for surprising Phoenix, drilling in 30 points—the third time he has reached that plateau this season.

Goodrich tallied 16 points in an 11-minute span in the first half as the Suns led at intermission 62-44. Bob Boozer topped the Bulls with 23 points.

They led 42 other players who also broke par into the second round today, after which the field will be cut to the top 70 and ties.

Bunched a stroke back of the leaders in the bid for $20,000 top prize were Frank Boynton of Cleveland, Dave Stockton of San Bernardino, Calif., Jack Fleck of Mission Viejo, Calif., and Doug Sanders of Cedarton, Ga.

Billy Casper, who has won $183,389 this year and is bidding to join Jack Nicklaus as the only $200,000-a-year men in golf, was in a group of eight tied at 68.

Chubin's 40 Not Enough, Stars Lose

By The Associated Press

Rick Barry, star of the Oakland Oaks in the American Basketball Association, is noted more for his shooting than his passing.

He threw in 29 points in leading the Oaks to a 143-127 victory over the Los Angeles Stars Thursday night but, actually, he passed off more than he shot. This more than offset the 40 points Steve Chubin scored for the Stars.

The victory moved the Oaks back into first place in the Western Division, half a game ahead of New Orleans. It was the Oaks' first triumph at home but only 1,623 turned out.

The Stars stayed close in the first half, but the Oaks broke a 56-56 tie to lead 79-63 at halftime and stayed in front.

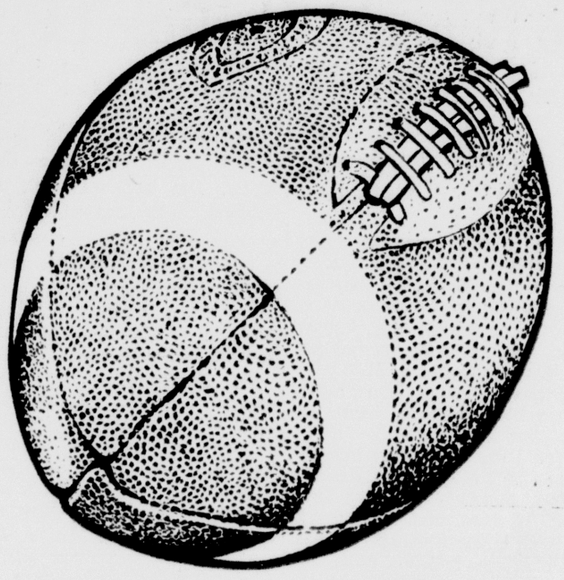

Houston beat Dallas 108-90 and Indiana took Denver 122-100 in the other two ABA games scheduled.

Willie Somerset's 23 points led Houston while John Beasley was high for Dallas with 19. Roger Brown paced Indiana with 25. Billy McGill's 26 for Denver was high for the game.

The USGA has set the 1969 amateur public links golf championship for July 9-12 at the Downing Golf Course in Erie, Pa.

Kentucky Out To Stop Sherwood's Passing

By ED TUNSTALL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) —Kentucky tries its hand Saturday at muzzling the shotgun passing of West Vrginia's Mike Sherwood in a game that's a big one for both football teams.

The Mountaineers, gunning for their fifth victory against two losses, will be spurred by a sellout homecoming crowd.

Kentucky's Wildcats have won but two of their six games but they tangled with some rough competition against the likes of Georgia, Louisiana State, Mississippi and Missouri.

And Coach Charlie Bradshaw's announced resignation earlier this week—effective at the season's close—may give the visitors a lift in an effort to give him some triumphs before he departs.

Kentucky will have to stop Sherwood's passing if it is to win. The 18-year-old sophomore from Bellaire, Ohio, ranks among the nation's top three tossers and he has not really had a bad game passing yet.

Sherwood has broken a bushel of Mountaineer records. He passed Allen McCune's season passing mark last week against VPI and now shows 1,483 on 112 completions in 194 attempts—a 58.8 completion percentage—and eight touchdowns.

The Wildcats will have to devote a lot of attenton to Mountaineer split end Oscar Patrick, who has been Sherwood's favorite target. Patrick has grabbed 37 passes for 606 yards and four touchdowns.

But Mountaineer Coach Jim Carlen isn't selling Kentucky short.

"It' an explosive team and can go all the way at any tme," the West Virginia head man said. Carlen indicated he has a lot of respect for Wildcat tailback Dicky Lyons.

Lyons leads the Wildcats in rushing, punt returns and kickoff returns. He's particularly dangerous on kickoff returns and rates as one of the nation's best with a 20.4-yard average on 19 takebacks.

The Kentucky passing game isn't anywhere near the Mountaineer overhead attack, particularly with No. 1 quarterback Stan Forston out after an appendix operation. But sub Dave Bair has chalked up 220 yards on 11 of 32 and a pair of touchdowns.

Bradshaw terms the Mountaineers "the best West Virginia team we've seen . . . very exciting and can gain long yardage in a few plays.

"That Sherwood is something else," the Kentucky coach said. "He has such a fine, effortless delivery that he can stand out there and throw all day and his passes are easy to catch."

Both teams have key men out with injuries but the crowd of near 35,000 expected for the 1:30 p.m. kickoff can expect the usual rugged, intermountain battle. West Virginia hasn't beaten Kentucky since 1964 and the Wildcats lead eight games to four with one tie in a series that started in 1905.

Mel Knowlton Will Step Down At Alliance

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Mel Knowlton,, head football coach and athletic director of Alliance High School since 1946, said yesterday that he would give up his coaching duties after the 1969 season. He did not say whether or not he would continue as athletic director.

Knowlton was voted Ohio high school coach of the year in 1958.

Junior High Games In Hancock Canceled

Two junior high football games in Hancock County were cancelled yesterday.

New Cumberland was scheduled at Chester and Wells was scheduled at Weirton Madonna. Lack of transportaton due to the walkout of non-certificated personnel was one of the reasons for the cancellations.

Chattanooga, Weber St. Advance In College Poll

By The Associated Press

San Diego State held on to its big lead over North Dakota State, while Chattanooga and Weber State made big leaps upward in The Associated Press' small college football poll this week.

The Aztecs, who made San Jose State their sixth straight victim 48-6 last weekend, drew all but three of the 17 first-place votes in the balloting by a regional panel of sports writers and sportscasters for 312 points.

North Dakota State, 7-0, didn't attract a single first- place vote, but had strong second ballot strength for 269 points to remain second.

Chattanooga, 7-0, vaulted from fifth to third following a 31-9 conquest of The Ciadel, while New Mexico Highlands, 8-0, remained fourth and Weber State, 6-0, and Tampa, 5-1, tied for fifth. Weber State, which surprised Mississippi State 24-17 last weekend, was 14th a week ago.

Rounding out the Top 10 were Eastern Kentucky, from 11th to seventh; Indiana, Pa., from ninth to eighth; Morgan State, from 12th to ninth, and Western Kentucky, which fell from third to 10th after a 16-7 loss to Eastern Kentucky.

Injuries Force Changes In Bengals' Starting 11

CINCINNATI (AP) — There figures to be some changes made in the Cincinnati Bengals' lineup when they resume American Football League competition here Sunday against the Houston Oilers.

The changes are not necessarily due to dissatisfaction by Coach Paul Brown — they are largely due to injuries suffered last Sunday when the Bengals were clobbered by the Oakland Raiders at Oakland, 31-10.

Brown, of course, is not happy since his expansion team has lost five in a row.

The Bengals will go into the game with a 2-6 record and are last in the AFL's Western Division. Houston, with a 3-5 mark, is third in the Eastern Division.

Definitely missing from the Bengals lineup will be Dewey Warren, who seemed to be on the verge of succeeding John Stofa as the starting quarterback. He suffered a mild concussion in the Oakland game.

Filling in for him will be rookie Sam Wyche, activated from the taxi squad. Wyche has seen little action in the regular season although he played considerably during the exhibition season.

It is not known whether Stofa or Wyche will start Sunday.

Brown expects to start Ron Lamb at fullback. The Bengals recently got him from Denver on waivers.

"He catches on quickly, he catches the ball and he is running well," Brown said of Lamb.

Because of other injuries, it was indicated there will be several changes in the defensive lineup. Wayne McClure probably will be at middle linebacker, Danny Brabham at left linebacker and Curt Frazier at safety.

If Brabham starts he will be taking over for Al Beauchamp, who had been outstanding on defense until last Sunday when, Brown said, he just had "a real bad day."

One major loss for the Bengals is defensive tackle Bill Staley, who also was hurt at Oakland. Staley, suffering from an ankle injury, was on crutches to watch Wednesday's practice.

The Oilers, too, have been having some troubles but it appears a quarterback problem may be partly solved.

Pete Beathard, a five - year veteran, has been out since undergoing an appendectomy but he may be ready for at least some part-time play.

Stroh's Team Will Appear At Riviera

The Stroh's Beer Bowling team will appear Sunday Nov. 17 at 2 p.m. at the Riviera Lanes, 1124 Midland Ave., Midland, for an exhibition against local bowlers.

The Stroh's squad is the national five man match game champion, winning that title in September in Cleveland and Detroit.

Ruggerio bowled ten 300 games in the 1961-62 season. Crawford is the central Ohio match game champion.

Special Match Won By Two In Trapshoot

Earl Burlingame and Ray Thompson won the walk-around shoot held Wednesday night by the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

In the 16-yard trapshoot, Alfred Cochran scored a perfect 25. Gary Tolson, Harold Lewis and Cochran each won a high gun shoot.

Mahovlich Hat Trick Leads Wings

By The Associated Press

Frank Mahovlich looked like a million to the Detroit Red Wings.

The veteran left wing, who was once the subject of a $1 million bid by the Chicago Black Hawks when he belonged to Toronto, scored three goals Thursday night, leading Detroit to a 7-5 National Hockey League victory over the Boston Bruins.

In Thursday's only other game, New York nipped Philadelphia 2-1 for its sixth straight victory against West Division teams.

Mahovlich completed his seventh career hat trick with a pair of third period goals after Boston had rallied with three goals to tie the score.

The Big M's second goal of the night came just 23 seconds after Boston's Ken Hodge had tied the game. Then, Mahovlich completed his hat trick with a twisting, stick-handling dash up ice to reach an empty net in the final minutes.

Pete Stemkowski, who came to Detroit with Mahovlich in the late-season trade with Toronto last spring, scored twice for the Red Wings. Detroit's Gordie Howe had three assists, the first one his 900th in regular season play.

Don Marshall snapped a third period tie by batting a rebound behind Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent as the Rangers continued their domination of the NHL's West teams.

Harry Howell of the Rangers and Philadelphia's Andre Lacroix had traded second-period goals.

Waterford Perfecta Pays $662

For the second straight night, the fourth race at Waterford Park provided longshot players with a real bonanza.

Last night, I's Somebody outdueled Ben Chuck in the run for the wire, and the resulting 8-1 perfecta was worth $662.80. There were 25 tickets sold on the lucky combination.

The big payoff came about as the result of North View Farm's Right To Counsel, an odds-on choice of the fans, tiring through the drive to finish third behind the two outsiders.

Wednesday night, a 5-2 perfect in the fourth race paid 29 fans a healthy $745.40.

Reds Slate 27 Games

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds announced Thursday they will play 27 games during spring training next year, including three against the World Champion Detroit Tigers.

Chattanooga, Weber St. Advance In College Poll

By The Associated Press

San Diego State held on to its big lead over North Dakota State, while Chattanooga and Weber State made big leaps upward in The Associated Press' small college football poll this week.

The Aztecs, who made San Jose State their sixth straight victim 48-6 last weekend, drew all but three of the 17 first-place votes in the balloting by a regional panel of sports writers and sportscasters for 312 points.

North Dakota State, 7-0, didn't attract a single first- place vote, but had strong second ballot strength for 269 points to remain second.

Chattanooga, 7-0, vaulted from fifth to third following a 31-9 conquest of The Citadel, while New Mexico Highlands, 8-0, remained fourth and Weber State, 6-0, and Tampa, 5-1, tied for fifth. Weber State, which surprised Mississippi State 24-17 last weekend, was 14th a week ago.

Rounding out the Top 10 were Eastern Kentucky, from 11th to seventh; Indiana, Pa., from ninth to eighth; Morgan State, from 12th to ninth, and Western Kentucky, which fell from third to 10th after a 16-7 loss to Eastern Kentucky.

Injuries Force Changes In Bengals' Starting 11

CINCINNATI (AP) — There figures to be some changes made in the Cincinnati Bengals' lineup when they resume American Football League competition here Sunday against the Houston Oilers.

The changes are not necessarily due to dissatisfaction by Coach Paul Brown — they are largely due to injuries suffered last Sunday when the Bengals were clobbered by the Oakland Raiders at Oakland, 31-10.

Brown, of course, is not happy since his expansion team has lost five in a row.

The Bengals will go into the game with a 2-6 record and are last in the AFL's Western Division. Houston, with a 3-5 mark, is third in the Eastern Division.

Definitely missing from the Bengals lineup will be Dewey Warren, who seemed to be on the verge of succeeding John Stofa as the starting quarterback. He suffered a mild concussion in the Oakland game.

Filling in for him will be rookie Sam Wyche, activated from the taxi squad. Wyche has seen little action in the regular season although he played considerably during the exhibition season.

It is not known whether Stofa or Wyche will start Sunday.

Brown expects to start Ron Lamb at fullback. The Bengals recently got him from Denver on waivers.

"He catches on quickly, he catches the ball and he is running well," Brown said of Lamb.

Because of other injuries, it was indicated there will be several changes in the defensive lineup. Wayne McClure probably will be at middle linebacker, Danny Brabham at left linebacker and Curt Frazier at safety.

If Brabham starts he will be taking over for Al Beauchamp, who had been outstanding on defense until last Sunday when, Brown said, he just had "a real bad day."

One major loss for the Bengals is defensive tackle Bill Staley, who also was hurt at Oakland. Staley, suffering from an ankle injury, was on crutches to watch Wednesday's practice.

The Oilers, too, have been having some troubles but it appears a quarterback problem may be partly solved.

Pete Beathard, a five - year veteran, has been out since undergoing an appendectomy but he may be ready for at least some part-time play.

Stroh's Team Will Appear At Riviera

The Stroh's Beer Bowling team will appear Sunday Nov. 17 at 2 p.m. at the Riviera Lanes, 1124 Midland Ave., Midland, for an exhibition against local bowlers.

The Stroh's squad is the national five man match game champion, winning that title in September in Cleveland and Detroit.

Ruggerio bowled ten 300 games in the 1961-62 season. Crawford is the central Ohio match game champion.

Special Match Won By Two In Trapshoot

Earl Burlingame and Ray Thompson won the walk-around shoot held Wednesday night by the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

In the 16-yard trapshoot, Alfred Cochran scored a perfect 25. Gary Tolson, Harold Lewis and Cochran each won a high gun shoot.

Mahovlich Hat Trick Leads Wings

By The Associated Press

Frank Mahovlich looked like a million to the Detroit Red Wings.

The veteran left wing, who was once the subject of a $1 million bid by the Chicago Black Hawks when he belonged to Toronto, scored three goals Thursday night, leading Detroit to a 7-5 National Hockey League victory over the Boston Bruins.

In Thursday's only other game, New York nipped Philadelphia 2-1 for its sixth straight victory against West Division teams.

Mahovlich completed his seventh career hat trick with a pair of third period goals after Boston had rallied with three goals to tie the score.

The Big M's second goal of the night came just 23 seconds after Boston's Ken Hodge had tied the game. Then, Mahovlich completed his hat trick with a twisting, stick-handling dash up ice to reach an empty net in the final minutes.

Pete Stemkowski, who came to Detroit with Mahovlich in the late-season trade with Toronto last spring, scored twice for the Red Wings. Detroit's Gordie Howe had three assists, the first one his 900th in regular season play.

Don Marshall snapped a third period tie by batting a rebound behind Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent as the Rangers continued their domination of the NHL's West teams.

Harry Howell of the Rangers and Philadelphia's Andre Lacroix had traded second-period goals.

Waterford Perfecta Pays $662

For the second straight night, the fourth race at Waterford Park provided longshot players with a real bonanza.

Last night, I's Somebody outdueled Ben Chuck in the run for the wire, and the resulting 8-1 perfecta was worth $662.80. There were 25 tickets sold on the lucky combination.

The big payoff came about as the result of North View Farm's Right To Counsel, an odds-on choice of the fans, tiring through the drive to finish third behind the two outsiders.

Wednesday night, a 5-2 perfect in the fourth race paid 29 fans a healthy $745.40.

Reds Slate 27 Games

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds announced Thursday they will play 27 games during spring training next year, including three against the World Champion Detroit Tigers.

Junior Editors Quiz on SHIP'S BELL

BELLS RUNG DURING AFTERNOON WATCH

12:30 P.M.	1 P.M.	1:30	2 P.M.	2:30	3 P.M.	3:30	4 P.M.

QUESTION: Why do they ring bells on a ship every now and then?

ANSWER: The bells are telling the time. Ringing the ship's bell in such a way is an old custom. You will understand the reason for it when you understand that the crew members of a ship are usually divided into two groups or watches. One watch will be on active duty on deck, while the other is below, the men resting or sleeping. Ringing the bell is a signal which all can hear. It tells when the watches are to be changed and what the time is. A day aboard ship has six watches (a watch can mean both half the men and the period of time they are on duty). The watches are for four hours each. When the bell is rung 8 times (8 bells) a new watch begins; this happens at 12 midnight, 4 A.M., 12 noon, 4 P.M. and 8 P.M. Bells are rung every half hour. Our picture shows how this works between 12 noon and 4 P.M. The bells are rung in groups of two, with extra numbers after a pause; for example, three bells would sound dingding ding, while 4 bells would be dingding, dingding.

Gause Answers Gosney On Election Fund Status

LISBON — "There will be a general election!" chairman Charles J. Gause of the Columbiana County Commissioners declared today in answer to Democrat party claims that Commissioners' spending could jeopardize the general election next Tuesday.

"Demands on the county's general fund are great at all times — by both Republican and Democrat officeholders — but the present commissioners have been at all times thrifty and very considerate of all spending," Gause said.

He noted that all the spending of county money is approved by all of the commissioners.

Regarding money for the election, Gause said an additional $20,000 will be provided to the board of elections — "in addition to its present budget of $130,448."

He said he believes the Board of Election should give some consideration to living within its budget.

"Let the critics be specific and to the point on any overspending," Gause challenged. "Let us live according to the status of the law, and let these departments responsible for the preparation of the monthly financial statement be prompt in remitting them to the board of commissioners so the commissioners can intelligently analyze them each month."

"We have been denied the proper financial statement as the law provided," Gause said. He said he received the May report in October although prior to that the commissioners received a monthly statement regularly since January 1967. "Five months late does not make for efficiency in any department," he stated.

The board chairman read his statement to the other commissioners — fellow Republican James W. Boyd of East Liverpool and R. Max Gard of Lisbon, Democrat — at their meeting Thursday.

Gause said the commissioners hope for full cooperation of all the courthouse offices so as to serve all the people of the county "every year — including election year."

Ohio's Politicians Hope Bomb Halt Brings Peace

By The Associated Press

Reaction by Ohio politicians to the North Vietnam bombing halt ranged from elation to concern about the dangers it could pose to soldiers in the field.

All the candidates expressed hope that the step would lead to peace.

"I think it's pretty great," said John J. Gilligan Democratic U.S. Senate candidate. "I think now that the effort I made with the others in Chicago, whatever the political ramifications might be, helped to bring this about and to end the bloodshed in Vietnam."

At the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, Gilligan was one of the leaders in an unsuccessful attempt to get a plank in the party platform calling for a bombing halt.

William B. Saxbe, the Republican senatorial nominee, expressed hope Thursday night that the halt "will lead to a speedy and complete peace" but added, "I hope no U.S. soldier will suffer because of it."

Republican Congressman Donald "Buzz" Lukens of Middletown said: "I wonder what it would geel like being a GI in Vietnam expecting air cover that is no longer there. If it is real, every American is glad and I'm glad too. I just hope to God its for real."

Also expressing concern about the added threat to American servicemen was GOP Congressman Clarence Brown Jr. of Urbana.

"Let's hope that the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong will cooperate in this bombing halt," he said. "He added that the American people should be aware that it may be a long time before peace really comes to Vietnam, noting that many Americans died while negotiations dragged on in Korea.

Brown's Democratic opponent in the 7th District, Robert Cecile, expressed hope that the action would lead to a speedy disengagement from what he called "a most tragic war." He voiced approval of the inclusion of Viet Cong and South Vietnamese representatives at the Paris peace negotiations. "It is imperative that those with the most at stake have an intimate part in the decisions that will affect their futures."

Charles A. Vanik, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 22nd District, indicated he felt that the bombing halt could help the candidacies of some Democrats.

Republican Congressman Charles Whalen Jr. of Dayton said he did not think the political influence of the bombing halt could "be assessed until after election day."

Sam Devine, Republican Congressman from Columbus, termed the timing of President Johnson's announcement "suspicious." "I have been predicting for several weeks now that some dramatic announcement would be made," he said.

Devine reserved judgment on the possible effects of the announcement on the presidential election, but observed: "I don't think Mr. Nixon will be dropping out of the race."

England consumes five times as many pounds of tea as it does coffee, while the American people drink 25 times as much coffee as tea.

Wanna' Bet? Better Read Facts Below

A little factual information can go a long way in helping make intelligent election bets.

For instance, the records show that a Democratic presidential candidate has carried Columbiana County only once since 1940.

Although he was known as one of the best vote - getters of all - time, Franklin D. Roosevelt did not carry the county in 1944 when he ran for his fourth term at the height of World War II.

Columbiana County gave him 18,795 votes, but cast 19,976 for Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican nominee.

Roosevelt carried Columbiana County, and just about everything else in sight, when he ran for a third term in 1940 against Wendell L. Wilkie.

And the next time a Democrat carried the county was in 1964, when Lyndon B. Johnson made a virtual clean sweep of the nation against Barry Goldwater. The county showed 28,706 votes for Johnson and 15,827 for Goldwater.

In Harry Truman's famous "come-from-behind" victory in 1948, the county cast 16,588 for the Missouri Democrat, but showed 17,724 for Dewey.

In the 1952 contest between Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson, the county gave "Ike" 26,507 and Stevenson 19,057.

"Ike" won bigger the second time around in 1956. He rolled up 28,812 votes in the county to Stevenson's 14,515.

Richard Nixon ran more than 8,000 ahead of John F. Kennedy in the county in the 1960 battle for the White House. Nixon rolled up 28,414 to Kennedy's 20,037.

Their battle set a voter turnout record that still stands. Columbiana County cast 48,830 ballots in the Nixon - Kennedy contest. The previous high was the 46,090 shown in the first Eisenhower - Stevenson race in 1952.

Many Ohio School Areas To Ask Tax Hike Tuesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Six out of every 10 school districts in Ohio are asking voters in next Tuesday's election to approve tax increases.

Stayner F. Brighton, executive secretary of the Ohio Education Association, said today that 487 school financial issues — levies for operating purposes and school construction bonds—will be on the ballots. In addition, he said, voters will decide 412 tax levies and 75 bond issues.

He said an OEA survey showed 103 requests for additional money over 5 mills, headed by a 13 - mill additional operating levy in Hamilton Local School District of Franklin County.

In November 1966, 40 school districts asked for levies of more than 5 mills, and a year ago the figure was 32.

Brighton attributed the unusually large number of levies this year in excess of 5 mills to "inflation and the pressure of teacher associations for professional salaries, and higher expectations of parents for equality education."

He said levy renewals, new levies and bond issues will be on the ballot in 390 of Ohio's 648 school districts. The breakdown shows 201 requests for additional money, 51 combination renewal and additional and 75 bond issues.

Twenty - nine school districts seek both bond issues and levies. Largest of these is Cleveland, which has on the ballot a 16.10 - mill renewal levy, 5.80 mills additional money and $50 million bond issue amounting to 1.28.

Of the 15 largest school districts, only Canton and Springfield are not asking tax increases.

Youngstown, with the lowest tax rate among the state's largest cities, heads the list of big cities asking for new money with a 12-mill request after five previous failures. School officials say that if the levy is rejected again, schools will have to be closed from Nov. 27 until the first of the year.

Akron is asking 8 mills in new money, and Columbus 8.2 mills. The Perry Local District in Lake County, which closed its schools Oct. 15 when it ran out of money, has a 10-mill levy before voters.

Stokes' Case Is Continued Until Nov. 18

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Muskingum County Probate Judge Hollard M. Gary Thursday continued until Nov. 18 a preliminary hearing on misconduct charges brought against Mayor Carl B. Stokes by the leader of a white supremacist group.

The judge took under advisement a motion by the mayor's attorneys to dismiss the case for lack of jurisdiction.

Judge Gary was assigned to hear the case after Cuyahoga County Probate Judges Frank J. Merrick and Josep Bartunek disqualified themselves "for personal reasons."

The suit was brought by Roy F. Richards, head of the Citizens Committee for Law and Order of the United Citizens Council of America.

He alleges in his suit that Stokes, a Negro, channeled funds to militant Negro groups, that he identified himself with organizations opposing law and order and that he mishandled law enforcement during the Glendale disorders last July in which three white policemen and seven Negro civilians were shot to death.

Judge Gary took under advisement a motion by Richards to have the hearing moved to another county.
